

MAY FIX OTHER MURDERS ON SHEPHERD

STATE WILL EXHUME BODIES OF BILLY'S MOTHER AND DOCTOR

Believe Three Deaths May Be Laid To Seventeen Year Conspiracy.

Chicago, March 26.—Exhuming of the bodies of Mrs. William McClintock, mother of "Billy" McClintock, and Dr. Oscar Olson, brother of Judge Harry Olson, chief instigator of the McClintock death probe, was to be sought by the state here today in an effort to gather further evidence of the alleged seventeen years conspiracy which they declared culminated in the "typhoid murder" of Billy.

The petition for such an order already has been drawn up. International News Service learned today, and according to the state's program, will be presented in circuit court before noon.

It states that both deaths occurred under "peculiar circumstances" which in the light of recent developments, warrant postmortem examination.

Chicago, March 25.—The long monotonous days of waiting behind prison bars—waiting for the pronouncement of his fate from the lips of a jury foreman—began today for William D. Shepherd.

The springtime dawn, which painted Chicago skies with red and gold and transformed the lake rippling in front of his luxurious Kenilworth home into a mighty sapphire, peeped through the high grided windows in the age old county jail here to find a new occupant of "murderer's row."

And in the early half-light of early morning, Shepherd today looked an old, careworn man. There was a trace of silver near his temples and there were lines in his face which had not shown ten days ago.

Jail officials said Shepherd had made no comment since the decision of the court late yesterday which denied him freedom on bail, pending his trial for murder for the death of William Nelson McClintock, his foster son for which he and "Dr." Charles C. Fairman stand indicted.

"Well boys I lost out; I'm likely to be with you a long time," he told bailiffs when they took him from the courtroom, but beyond that he maintained silence.

WITNESS IN KIRBY CASE SAYS POLAND IS ABOVE REPROACH

Receiver Admits Former Official Under Fire Has Control Of All Company Funds

Cleveland, O., March 26.—While state counsel plunged deeper into the books of the Cleveland Discount Company, in an effort to prove the charge that Josiah Kirby and Raymond L. Poland, former officials in the company, had issued a false financial statement, Attorney Higley, counsel for Poland, drew the statement from William L. David, receiver of the company that "Poland is above reproach."

David answered the examination of Higley, which was intended to score for Poland with the admissions that Poland had had charge of all of the money negotiable bonds since the company went into receivership and that he alone has the key and combination to the vault in which more than a million dollars in money and bonds is kept.

In his testimony, David showed the extent of the Cleveland Discount Company, which has been touted as the largest discount company in the country.

Objections flew thick and fast when state counsel asked that Malcolm Love, public accountant, who made the income tax duplicate for the company in 1921, read from certain books of the company.

Walters denies the charge. When arrested, he had a 45 calibre revolver on his person, officials said. He was lodged in the county jail.

FORMER SENATOR BURKE ATTACKS ABOLISHMENT OF PRIMARY SYSTEM PROPOSED IN AIGLER AMENDMENT

Measure Would Be Defeated In Referendum at Polls, He Declares—Would Take Constitutional Rights From People.

Columbus, O., March 26.—For the legislature to deny the people the right to select their candidates for office by primary system would be "an act of supreme impudence," and would be repudiated at a referendum, former State Senator J. F. Burke, declared today in a statement issued here. The movement, he asserted, is an effort by "the few men who have usurped the power of the people in big cities," to obtain the same power in the state at large.

Fate of the Aigler resolution, proposing amendment of the Ohio constitution to abolish the primary system for the selection of party candidates for state and district elective offices, was in doubt today, the next to last calendar day before the legislature three weeks recess.

House Republican leaders, at a caucus of the majority members, were only able to muster fifty-six votes in support of the measure while forty-one opposed it. The resolution is expected to be amended today to retain the primary system for all but state offices and United States Senator in an effort to attract further support, but leaders believed it was a question whether the resolution would carry, as seventy-eight votes, or three fifths of the house membership, are required for adoption.

"America has been pretty thoroughly ingrained with the idea that all just powers are derived from the consent of the governed, and it has been the purpose of those who are carrying out the American idea and doctrine as far as possible to remove all obstacles in the way of the people having complete power to choose their candidates and their officials," former Senator Burke said in his statement.

"The few men who through one means or another have usurped the power of the people in big cities, are constantly trying to enact legislation which will grant them the same power in the state at large. But even these men have not dared to suggest that the right of the people as granted by the constitution to determine their own candidates be taken away from them. They have suggested legislation be enacted providing for a pre-primary convention whereby the bosses and politicians might unite upon a single candidate for whatever power their machinery might have in putting him over on the day of the primary. This they do without a primary as far as they can. They feel they would be more certain of nominating their candidate if their power were first exercised in a convention which they more certainly can control than a state primary."

"For the legislature to propose a constitutional amendment to take away these rights from the people and deny them power to nominate their own candidates within their party would be an act of supreme impudence. It would be needless expense. The people would repudiate it by a quarter of a million votes and it would agitate the state politically as probably no other question has in several years."

Mr. Burke said that objections had been raised to the primary system and that it had its faults, most of which have already been corrected, but he asserted that even if only fifty per cent of the voters participate in a primary, the number is far greater than ever took part in the old time caucuses, "in the most exciting political canvass ever conducted."

"And even with those who do not vote, the right exists, and why should this right be taken from them and the power which should be theirs practically lodged in the hands of a few professionals who are in it for what they can get out of it," Burke continued. "At the same time, maybe it is well that the issue be put up in this form if there are those who think the people generally want to turn over their rights entirely to guardians, so that by the vote in the fall, notice can be served by the people themselves upon this group as to how they really feel about it."

The house Republican caucus approved the Sweeney resolution proposing an amendment to the state constitution to extend terms of elective officers to four years, after an amendment had been approved, limiting this extension to state and county offices.

The house is expected to vote on both the Aigler primary abolition resolution and the Sweeney four year term resolution today. The Aigler measure was reported by the house elections committee late last night.

KILLED BY FIRE TRUCK

Cleveland, O., March 26.—The forty-second traffic death of 1925 had been registered here today with the death of Henry Bender, machinist, run down by a fire truck. The driver was exonerated.

She gave birth to a child there, she testified.

"What became of your child?" counsel asked.

Mumtaz lowered her head. Her voice dropped almost to a whisper. "It was murdered," she said.

Justice reserves decision in Dennistoun case

London, March 26.—Justice McCordie today reserved decision in the suit of Mrs. Dorothy Dennistoun against her former husband, Col. Ian Dennistoun, in which a jury awarded her $25,000 damages and $6,000 debt claims.

The case, which has been occupied by legal arguments from the time of the verdict until Justice McCordie's announcement today, has become a target for wide-spread comment.

The Daily Telegraph and other newspapers are defending British society, claiming that only a small portion of it has been represented in the vivid intrigues brought out in the Dennistoun testimony.

Canon Donaldson, of Westminster Abbey, on the other hand, in a statement published by the Evening Standard, declared the case filled him with revulsion. He said it reminded him of the decay of ancient Rome and the moral dissolution which preceded its final breakup.

He announced that it was idle rich who foster false standards of worth and dignity.

Meanwhile Desmond Huston Chapman, biographer of Sir John Cowans, named by Mrs. Dennistoun as her protector and her husband's benefactor, writes defending the character of the British soldier who was a popular figure at the time of his death.

Slayer Faints

DOROTHY ELLINGSON.

Dorothy Ellingson, sixteen-year-old San Francisco girl, who killed her mother when provoked for her late hours and constant jazzing, fainted when placed on trial there for the murder. Her defense was temporary insanity.

The state and defense each had eight peremptory challenges remaining as the day started. As soon as the defense is satisfied with the makeup of the jury the state has announced it will accept it.

At the same time attorneys for the defense conferred with Joseph Ellingson, father of Dorothy, on a plan to petition the court to name a physician to examine the girl each morning before court opens and sit in attendance upon her throughout the trial. They are frankly apprehensive that her strength will fail under the strain. The girl, her father declared today, is not sleeping or eating.

Two women remain in the jury box. The balance are middle aged men, verging on elderly lines. One, youth of 22, and another of 25, were ousted by defense peremptory challenges. The trial settled down today as a test of physical endurance on the part of the 16 year old matricide.

Twice she has fallen in dead faints at the conclusion of the courtroom ordeal. Once her nerves snapped under the strain of being photographed and again as she heard the name of her mother brought into the case.

"There is nothing fundamentally wrong with the girl," however, physicians say.

JUDGE EXPECTED TO GET TEAPOT DOME CASE THURSDAY NOON

Roberts Scheduled To End Argument For Government At Morning Session

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 26.—Judicial determination of the famous Teapot Dome equity suit in which the United States government seeks to have cancelled the Sinclair lease on the rich Wyoming naval petroleum reserve is expected to be in the hands of Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy at noon today.

Owen Roberts, special government oil counsel, will consume, he says, about two hours in delivering the plaintiff's rebuttal to the two days and a half oral argument that has been presented by the defense in upholding the legality of the lease and denouncing the charges of fraud, conspiracy and secrecy, which the government has charged, surrounded negotiation and execution of the Sinclair contract. The hearing then will close.

It is expected both sides will be granted time in which to file written briefs in the case and little hope is held out for a decision by Judge Kennedy within two or three months.

COURT ATTEMPTS TO HURRY CASE BEFORE GIRL BREAKS DOWN

Night Sessions Will Be In Order If Jury Is Not Soon Chosen

San Francisco, March 28.—Fearing that Dorothy Ellingson will break under the strain before a jury can be secured to try her for the murder of her mother, Judge Harold Louderback today took steps to speed up selection of the jury as the trial entered upon its fourth day.

He served notice on the attorneys for the state and defense that the sessions would be prolonged into the evening hours if a jury were not secured before five o'clock this afternoon. The belief was expressed as the court convened that under this pressure a jury would be quickly chosen and the trial proper gotten under way today.

The state and defense each had eight peremptory challenges remaining as the day started. As soon as the defense is satisfied with the makeup of the jury the state has announced it will accept it.

At the same time attorneys for the defense conferred with Joseph Ellingson, father of Dorothy, on a plan to petition the court to name a physician to examine the girl each morning before court opens and sit in attendance upon her throughout the trial. ### Why You Should Own a Top Coat

No man is well-dressed whose clothes are at odds with the time of the year. A heavy-weight overcoat in lightweight weather is unbecoming and unfashionable, because it is unseasonable. Wearing such a garment in March dates a man's appearance back to December.

You should possess a Spring Top Coat because (1) It is warm enough for cool days and cool enough for warm days. (2) It looks smart and sensible and suitable to the season. (3) The change to a lighter coat from a heavy one refreshes and re-energizes one's spirit. (4) Carrying around oppressive weight and bulk, detracts from a man's "pep," efficiency and bodily well-being.

Get your Spring Top Coat today, and note a big difference in how you feel, and how you look to others and how others look to you.

WELL, BOWES CERTAINLY DID THE HANDSOME ACT—HE'S GIVEN US THE BRIDAL SUITE—BUT I DON'T SEE ANY PAINTINGS ON THE WALL—WHERE ARE THE CANARIES? AND THE GOLD FISH? AND I DON'T SEE THE PHONOGRAPH OR THE RADIO HE PROMISED TO HAVE INSTALLED—

WELL, WE'LL PUT UP WITH IT—IT COULD BE WORSE—JUST THINK HOW TIRED YOUR ARMS WOULD BE IF WE HAD TO GO HOME ON A HAND-CAR—AND HOW TIRED YOUR FEET WOULD BE IF WE HAD TO WALK—YOU THOUGHT I COULDN'T GET A RESERVATION—NOW YOU SEE YOUR MISTAKE—I CAN GET A RESERVATION AS QUICK AS ANY FULL-BLOODED INDIAN—

WELL, MIN, YOU'VE SAID GOODBY TO THE ORANGES, COCONUTS AND PALM TREES—BUT THERE'S A LITTLE PLACE WAY UP NORTH—IT'S GOT A WHITE FENCE AROUND IT—SHINGLES ON THE ROOF—AND A BACK YARD ABOUT TWENTY YARDS SQUARE AND 8000 MILES DEEP—MOST PEOPLE WOULD THINK IT'S JUST A HOUSE—BUT WE KNOW IT'S A LITTLE HUNK OF PARADISE CALLED HOME—

TIME TO DO LITTLE THINGS

EVEN the busy world today felt a little gasp of fine feeling when it learned from the newspapers that the President, reaching out from the mass of labor with which he is always surrounded, made permanent appointments in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing of two simple women, one a widow with three children, the other the sole support of an injured husband and two minor children. It was done under an executive order, the only instrument which makes such action possible, and by his gracious action two American homes and five American children were saved their home environment.

One of the women, Mrs. May B. Bowman, served for 11 years in the bureau. Her husband is David J. Bowman, a former plate printer, who was compelled to resign on account of an injury received in an accident. There are three children dependent on them for support. The other woman, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Sullivan, had served nearly ten years up to July 21, 1917, when she resigned to marry Charles A. Sullivan, a former plate printer in the bureau, whose death occurred October 1, 1924. His death was the result of ink poisoning received in line of duty. Mrs. Sullivan has dependent upon her two small children and a widowed mother.

This action on the part of the President demonstrates the fact that the really big men in public life can find time to aid those who are worthy of aid.

REMOVING THE DEADWOOD

JARDINE, the new secretary of agriculture, is acting like a real he-man, to use a trite but expressive phrase. It is hinted that he has already discovered that his primary problem in the Department is to really reorganize it into an effective going concern. It is regrettable but true that the Department of Agriculture, for all of the fine work which it has done, is honey-combed with imitation, useless and extravagant bureaus and subdivisions which are of no particular value. Mixing brains with the soil is now a recognized feature of farming life, but in various bureaus of the Department, in the attempt to build up organizations, the proportion of brains to common farm soil has become as nine to one.

The farmers of the country want facts, want advice, and are eager for instruction, but when it comes to the point where for the giving out of a five dollar fact a five thousand dollar bureau has to be organized, it is about time to call a halt. This may seem a want on exaggeration, but it is not far from the facts.

The sooner the deadwood and underbrush is cleared away, the sooner the Department of Agriculture will function as it really should, to the benefit of the farmers. That we understand is the goal toward which Jardine is moving.

THE FAITH OF THE TRAVELING MAN

Since I've been a bit of a traveling man
My heart goes out to the drummer
clad
For I've learned a lot which I didn't know
In my younger days as I watched them go
When I envied them and their chance to ride
Over the country far and wide;
But I've lost the lure of a leather grip.
And I live in dread of another trip.
And I've shaped my life to a different plan,
For I haven't the faith of a traveling man!

I haven't that faith which can keep me strong
When I'm outward bound and the miles are long.
I can laugh and jest till the day is through.
But I can't keep up on a letter or two
And I long for the sight of a toused
head
And a healthy boy on his little bed;
In spite of the news which their mother writes
I haven't that faith for the lonely nights.
I frequently doubt what the letters
tell
And I long to see them to know they're well!

But a traveling man must travel
along Whether matters at home are right or wrong.
He cannot go to their rooms at night

And see for himself that they are all right.
He must live by faith at the long day's close!
He must think them well, but he never knows!
He must cure himself when his thoughts grow black,
And that is the sort of high faith I lack.
"Don't worry! We're well! she may write to me.
But I've got to be with them where
I can see.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—
bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation,
you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards'
Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

Stop Night Coughing
This Simple Way

People who have persistent, annoying coughing spells at night, and who through loss of valuable sleep
are weakening their systems and laying themselves open to dangerous infections, can stop their distressing trouble promptly by a very simple treatment. Hundreds who have hardly been able to rest at all for coughing, have gotten their full night's sleep the very first time they tried it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr.
King's New Discovery for Coughs.
You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe
the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no harmful drugs.
Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. It is on sale at all good druggists. Ask for

Is it possible for a thin, bony, hollow-cheeked fellow to put on good solid flesh, fill out like a real red-blooded man, and get new pep
and strength in LESS THAN A MONTH?

Not only does Miss Gloria Evans
THINK so—SHE KNOWS SO.
Her sweetheart was as "skinny as a broomstick, he was so pale, nervous and unhealthy-looking he seemed like a walking ghost." Then, secretly at first, he started in taking Kath, a wonderful new gland treatment he heard about, and in three weeks time he added 18 lbs. of fine strong flesh. Pretty soon his face took on a fine healthy glow, he felt
new vitality surging in his veins.
Then he "popped the question" to the beautiful Miss Evans, and she quickly said "Yes." As Jack now writes, both were in a "seventh

Kath is the much talked-about genuine extract of glands which gives a new start to the flesh form-

Today's Talks

SIMPLICITY
There is an idea afloat that a work
of art must have elaborate detail.
As a matter of fact all great art
is simplicity made so plain and understandable that a child may grasp it.

He who makes beauty felt vaster
than anything seen, who compels a horde of debtors to bend the knee in holy reverence at the simple revelation of nature and character, whether from the simplest expression of a flower's smile, or the softest note from a song bird's throat, or the silent wave of a single blade of green grass—that one is himself a kind of phantom poem or a piece of inspired prose.

You may honestly look upon such a one as a great artist.

I was looking at a wonderful Royal Palm tree today. I was thrilled by its marvelous simplicity and its rising grace of curve. These nights I have opened my heart for hours to let in its loveliness under the golden moon, and as it has been shadowed behind passing clouds, or was washed
by the heavy rain.

There is nothing simpler than the vast ocean. And yet how few there have been whose ability has transferred its soul to canvas. How many Winslow Homers has the world produced?

The simplest gown on a woman is always the most beautiful and affective. The piece of furniture that the fewest lines which extend graceful curves is always the loveliest.

Simplicity in living is the healthful.
The small mind gets easily fused. But he who thinks in rough simple terms, ploughs the any difficulty and comes out a and able.

All basic principles are at Great writing is the simplest and the largest number may grasp meaning, as for example such works as Shakespeare, Milton Bible.

CITY FILES SUITS TO COLLECT UNPAID PAVING ASSESSMENTS

Six suits, involving $1,635.76, have been filed in Common Pleas Court by F. A. Jackson, county treasurer, through City Solicitor J. A. Finney, with the authorization of the City Commission against seven Xenia property owners to collect alleged unpaid street improvement and paving assessments.

An ordinance was passed by the City Commission July 19, 1922, levying special assessments on all lots abutting and bounding various streets in Xenia in order to pay the property owners' share of the cost of improving the streets, according to the petition.

The seven defendants named were assessed and the property assessments became a lien on the passage of the ordinance, it is alleged in the petition.

The petition states that these assessments were certified by the city auditor to the county auditor for collection in ten annual installments as provided by law and placed on the tax duplicate by him.

The plaintiff claims that the defendants failed to pay their assessments and were thereby delinquent and subject to the 5 per cent penalty. He requests that the various properties described in the petition be sold and the proceeds applied in payment of the assessments.

Defendants named in the petitions with their alleged delinquencies include Homer O. Hudson, with property on South West Street, $156.42; Jesse B. Hudson, South West Street, $297.63; John T. Barnett, property on Home Avenue and Whiteman Street, $207.75 and $410.46; Eugene Valentine, East Main Street, three tracts of land, $25.29, $20.99 and $165.44; Bessie Williams and Minnie McCormick, Xenia, $174.08; Flora Leach, East Main Street, $178.

ERIE RAILROAD GETS NEW RIGHT OF WAY IN BATH TOWNSHIP

The first step in the re-location of the Erie Railroad, branch line of the Big Four Railroad, in Bath Township, was taken Thursday when a deal transferring a strip of about seventy-five acres of land in the southern edge of Osborn to the railroad by the Miami Conservancy District was consummated in the County Auditor's office. Nevin and Kalbfus, Dayton law firm, completed the deal.

Thirty-two small property deeds involving a strip of land about ninety feet wide, gives the railroad the right-of-way through Bath Township and will enable it to re-locate the branch line between Dayton and Springfield outside the rim of the flood district.

Installation of the conservancy dam about four years ago necessitated the re-building of the railroad in what is known as the flood district, low land upon which back water or surplus water is deposited in the event of heavy rains or a possible flood danger.

The re-location makes the right-of-way between Springfield and Dayton slightly longer but minimizes any danger of flooding the tracks with water.

COMPANY L ANNUAL CAMP TRIP WILL BE FROM AUGUST 2 TO 16

Members of Company L, 147th Infantry, Ohio National Guard, will again take the fourteen days of training at Camp Perry, O., this year, Captain Leroy John announced Thursday. The training period this year extends from August 2 to August 16.

The entire company, which comprises sixty men and three officers, will make the trip.

Company L attended the training camp the last two weeks in August in 1924 but since it is a unit of the 74th Brigade, which will train the first two weeks in August this year, the change in date was made.

All types of drill maneuvers, target practice and sports are included in the training. A sham battle at the close of the period will feature the trip.

Last year Company L carried off a majority of the honors in sports and drill and is counting on upholding its hard won laurels again this year.

DISMISS ONE CASE; ANOTHER IS HELD

A charge of possessing liquor against Jennie Hickman, colored, East Third Street, was dismissed Thursday afternoon by Police Judge E. D. Smith for lack of evidence.

Arthur Comfort, colored, this city, is being held at Police Headquarters on a charge of possessing liquor. He will probably be arraigned in Police Court Friday, it was announced.

Comfort was arrested Monday by Patrolman Thompson who gave chase when the former fled from the Hickman home with a bottle of liquor in each hand police say.

Comfort broke the bottles when he saw that his arrest was inevitable but Patrolman Thompson sponged up part of the fluid.

MICHAEL T. GRAHAM DIES AT HOSPITAL

Michael T. Graham, 65, died at the McClellan Hospital, Thursday, at noon, after suffering from a heart attack while recovering from a suicide attempt made a few days ago. Mr. Graham had suffered from heart trouble for some time and his ill health had caused despondency.

He slashed his wrists Monday at midnight and was rushed to the hospital the following morning. Although seriously ill from loss of blood and weakness physicians held hope for his recovery until Thursday when his condition became critical.

Mr. Graham was employed as nurse at the Greene County Infirmary until ill health forced him to give up his work.

Besides his widow he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Haines and Thomas Graham of Dayton, James Graham and Miss Irene Graham, at home.

Funeral services will be announced later.

CHILD IS KILLED PLAYING MOVIES

Dayton, O., March 26—Mildred Grice, 4, daughter of S. E. Grice, cement contractor, was instantly killed in the front yard of her home at Harshmanville Wednesday afternoon when she was shot through the right lung by a five-year-old playmate while playing "movies."

Billy Bower, son of Charles Bower, prominent Dayton florist, fired the fatal shot while enacting a scene from the movies for the benefit of the little girl.

Coroner Torrence rendered a verdict of "accidental death from revolver wounds" because of the extreme youth of the boy.

GIRL BANDIT GETS CONSTABLE'S MONEY

Dayton, O., March 26—Initial appearance of a "flapper bandit" in Dayton was recorded at Police Headquarters when Hubert M. Elliot, colored constable attached to Judge McCray's court complained that he had been held up by a girl Wednesday and robbed of $25. He said a "flapper bandit" with bobbed hair poked a blue steel automatic into his face and told him in a business like way to "put em up."

MODISH MITZI—Sports Clothes For The Sporting

By JAY V. JAY

"And what," ponders Dad, "can this mean?" Mitzi is hauling out golf clubs and tennis racquets for an examination that appears to be anxious and serious. Yet our Mitzi is not one of those who take their sports solemnly. She volunteers the explanation.

"It's the new sports clothes," Mitzi says. "Here is a jolly jumper dress of bouclé—that's a knitted fabric. The collar and cuffs are crepe de chine and I think I'd like it best in green and white check. Don't you think it would be becoming?"

"Although," Mitzi continues "a separate dress and a coat are nice, too. This coat is white in a special weave and the white crepe de chine dress would make it look almost like an ensemble suit. Red piplings on the dress, I think."

"Maybe I'd like this better. It has the newest sort of yoke and collar." Dad presumes throughout this monologue a discreet silence. His only hope, but it's a good one, is that with so many handsome garments to choose from, Mitzi will fail to choose at all.

WOMEN FAVOR RED SAYS FRED C. KELLY IN LATE MAGAZINE

Fred C. Kelly, former Xenian, well known author and magazine contributor, has an article entitled, "You Can Improve Your Looks by Wearing the Right Colors" in the current issue of the American Magazine.

Kelly tells of his observations on the selection of the right and wrong colors in wearing apparel and the story deals with Matthew Luckiesh, director of the laboratory of applied science at the National Lamp Works of the General Electric Company in Cleveland. Mr. Luckiesh has for years been making studies of light and colors for use in practical affairs and has written several books on the subject.

Kelly didn't forget the old home town either. He asked Luckiesh what the most popular color is. Luckiesh answered that as to the favorite hue, all experiments have conclusively demonstrated that the female of the human species like red best of all, with blue second and violet closely following.

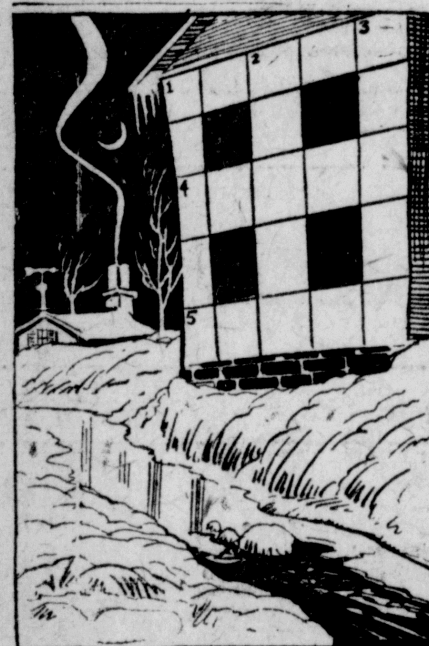

"Do you mean to say," Kelly asked, "that if I walked up Fifth Avenue in New York or stop at Main and Detroit Streets in Xenia, O., and asked the first hundred women I meet to tell me their favorite color the majority will say 'Red'?"

"Not exactly that," replied Luckiesh. "A majority of all you ask wouldn't say 'red' but the number who say 'red' will probably be larger than the group for any other one color."

BROTHER SHOTS SISTER IN ACCIDENT

Warren, O., March 25.—Unmindful of the serious bullet wound which may take her life, seventeen year old Frances Walowicz lies in a hospital here today worried because her brother Edward, 15, admitted that he inflicted the wound after she had told her mother and authorities that she had shot herself.

The girl was shot through the abdomen, the bullet emerging from her back, Monday morning, when her brother accidentally discharged a .22 calibre rifle, while he was showing her what progress he had made as a marksman following a morning of target shooting with the newly acquired gun at their home at North Bristol, near here. Edward picked up the gun and pulled the trigger. Frances fell to the floor. She rose and ran upstairs to her room and fell upon her bed, where her mother found her. She said she had shot herself. But Edward told Prosecuting Attorney W. W. Pierson today that he fired the shot. Edward is being held pending death or recovery of his sister.

New Treatment For Varicose or Swollen Veins

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength), at Sohn's Drug Store, Sayre and Hemphill and start to reduce the veins and bunches at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal. It is guaranteed.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that enlarged glands, wens and even goitre disappear when used steadily—Adv.

WOMAN SO ILL WASHED DISHES SITTING DOWN

Mrs. Ashcroft's Remarkable Recovery After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Covington, Ky.—"I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my housework as I could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do in that way—as washing dishes, etc. One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine was put in my mail-box. I saw how the Vegetable Compound had helped others so I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier for poor blood. I was cold all the time. I would be so cold I could hardly sit still and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sanative Wash and I recommend it also. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."—Mrs. HARRY ASHCROFT, 632 Beech Avenue, Covington, Kentucky.

WHITE SOX BLOSSOM OUT AS FULL FLEDGED DARK HORSE IN RACE

BY HAROLD JOHNSON

Shreveport, La., March 26—Baseball prognosticators who annually grapple with the dope, venturing opinions on the pennant outlook will be guilty of no miscalculations in the event they proclaim Comiskey's White Sox a full blown dark horse entry. This is the judgment of diamond veterans and writers who have observed the club which in 1924 finished in the American League basement twenty-five games behind the champion Senators.

During three weeks of intensive training here under the leadership of Manager Eddie Collins, a fighting spirit such as characterized the pale hose of 1917 again pervaded the camp. It is generated by Collins and his dynamic direction of the squad, whether in games against minor leaguers or among the split seconds of the Sox themselves, has been an outstanding feature of the daily proceedings.

Collins, beloved by every member of his team, is a natural leader. He has the wholehearted co-operation of his men.

Judging from the manner in which Collins is proceeding with his material, bell time at Detroit on April 14 will see virtually the same lineup that campaigned so indifferently in 1924.

But it will be a fighting crew. Numerous recruits plucked from independent ranks, were given the acid test when the conditioning routine was launched and Eddie was quick to wield the pruning knife. The chief concern of the new tactician, is the choice of a competent shortstop and the development of an effective south-paw pitcher. Otherwise his worries are of a minor nature.

Three sterling performers have been fighting for the short field assignment and each is fully qualified to play the position. Harvey McClellan perhaps is the flashiest fielder of the trio which includes Ink Davis, obtained in midseason of 1924 from Columbus, and Johnny Butter, last year with Wichita.

Thirteen pitchers now grace the Sox roster and five of these are slated to headline elsewhere when Collins has completed his housecleaning.

Faber, Blankenship, Robertson, Connally, Lyons, Leverette, Cven-gros, Mangum and Thurston are listed as the veterans with Steen-grafe, Ash, Davenport and Foreman practically newcomers, though Steen-grafe and Davenport have been on and off the roster in other seasons. It now appears as though Faber, Blankenship, Robertson, Lyons, Connally, Thurston, Cven-gros and Mangum are fixtures although Collins is broadcasting no information regarding his plans in the curving department.

Sheely at first, Collins at second, and Kamm at third, are all fixtures of course, on the infield, while the outfield now lines up with the same fly chasers who were carried last year, namely Falk, Hooper, Mostil, Archdeacon, Barrett and Elish.

In addition to the veteran Ray Schalk, who appears fit for a banner season and Crouse and Grabowski, who were employed last season, the catching staff numbers George Hschoff, obtained from Port Worth. All three second stringers to Schalk, are of high calibre but one of this group must be eliminated.

Bowling

In taking three straight games from the Bayliffs Wednesday night, the Quoit Club bowling team kept pace with the Arcade "5," leaders of the bowling league, and remained in the running for the championship. The winners had a narrow squeeze in the final game winning by three pins.

William Smith had high score with 216 and also high average of the match. Box score:

MINES IN MINE WHERE EXPLOSION OF GAS CAUSED DEATHS TOLD IN LETTER

A. D. DeHaven, West Market street, has received a letter from his late friend, George W. Jefferys, East Park Avenue, Fairmont, W. Va., railroad engineer who was a member of the rescue squad that worked the night and day in an effort to reach the thirty-four miners who were killed by an explosion in the Bethlehem Mines Corporation plant at Barre, Vt. The letter contains a description of the disaster and the terrible experiences and dangers which rescue workers were exposed to.

The letter says in part: "Just a line before I go to bed. I nearly died from fatigue. The day I was home I offered my services to Lambie, chief of the mine rescue squad, as I belong to the Barre and Ohio Railroad rescue squad of course. I was accepted on the spot. Since Thursday at 10 a. m. up to Friday at 10 a. m. I have been working on the advance rescue squad, hours 'on' then rest an hour, and again for six hours more and so on as long as a fellow can carry on. I became exhausted. I stuck pretty good until my lungs and drums began to play out on account of the 'after damp', a highly dangerous gas formed after the explosion.

Doctor, old pal, it is utterly impossible to describe the scene above and around the shaft cage and pile. The shaft is 350 feet deep, fourteen by twenty feet in diameter. The cage and tippie on top of the shaft, ninety-five feet high, weighed 100 tons, was torn and twisted out of all resemblance and was literally torn 1,000 yards up the hillside. A stone building, the engine room, 80 feet by 80 feet, standing 100 yards from the shaft, was leveled to the ground. In fact every one of the buildings around the mine was torn and shattered.

I was third in line in the first rescue squad to enter the B. C. D. 'H' headings and rooms. My equipment was one Gibbs oxygen twenty-hour helmet, with nose, mouth and face cover of duraluminum, rubber suit heated electrically, life whistle strung around neck within reach of my lips, twenty-hour electric helmet light, battery, small ax and chisel, life line to be connected to the man behind me, one small siren for the purpose of calling for help, and of all, but the most important, a yellow canary bird in a tiny cage strapped to my right thigh.

Poor little bird, he gave his life. I could save mine. The birds are very susceptible to the deadly fire gas, perfectly odorless but as poisonous as cyanide potassium. I had unhooked my belt and started down a mine to turn a body that I had found on its back and I ran into the mine. When I saw the little fellow in the cage gasp and fall over, I turned and started back but was hardly able to go the last five feet. I thought my heart and lungs were on fire and would surely burst but a few whiffs of oxygen put me all right again.

"Albert, the sight that met my eyes when I entered 'H' heading almost floored me. I hope to God that I may never, never, as long as I live, see such a sight again. Death and desolation on every hand and for a while I thought my sanity would leave me. The heading was sixteen feet wide and three miles long and right in front within ten feet of what might have spelled safety lay a father and his sixteen year old son.

"The boy had his left arm blown completely off. His father had shouldered him and wrapped his jacket around his head to ward off the gas as much as possible and staggered to within ten feet of the air shaft when he evidently got too weak to carry him and tried to drag him along on the rail, but smothered to death before he could reach the air course.

"He almost had life within his grasp only to lose it and above him on the wall of the heading he had written in his last few seconds the words, 'I've done my best. Donald is dying and my lungs are on fire. God keep Minnie, my mother.' He evidently intended to write the word 'mother' but death overtook him.

"Can you imagine the agony of mind and body, the physical suffering, the thoughts of his loved ones 350 feet above him, that the poor fellow went through, Doctor, old pal, when I comprehended it all, it made me wonder why God allowed such a drama to be enacted there in all of its pitiful suffering and let some other fool live outside.

"It made my throat fill up with a lump and I am not ashamed to say I offered up a little prayer for these first two martyrs, for martyrs they are, both of them. The next sight to meet my eyes was a dead motor-man who must have kept his dog inside with him for he was on his knees with his coat over his dog (a little fox terrier) crouching between his knees. I expect his last thought was to protect his little dog. The poor little dog no doubt would have given his life for his master just as freely, could he have done so."

The cast includes Alexander Carr, George Sidney, Vera Gordon, Betty Blythe, Norma and Constance Talmadge.

Manager J. T. Hibbert also announces that Thursday night's program will be Pola Negri in "East of Suez" and Fox News.

NEW TRAFFIC DEVICE REDUCES CHANCES OF CROSSING ACCIDENTS

Installation of a flash signal traffic warning device, electrically controlled, at the Trebleins double railroad crossing, reduces to a minimum the possibility of accidents at that crossing, according to J. E. Daly, assistant trainmaster of the Cincinnati Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad here.

The statement is issued in refutation of a report given publicly some time ago, in which the crossing was branded as dangerous because the device installed there operated solely when Pennsylvania trains were approaching and would secure the autoist into a sense of security if a train approached on the parallel Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks.

The device is connected with tracks of both railroads so that it operates at the approach of trains on any track, but at the time the report was made public, it had just been installed and was not placed in service, according to Mr. Daly. He believes this fact led to the erroneous report.

PUPILS OF JUNIOR CLASS OFFER SIX ACT VARIETY SHOW

Members of the junior class of Central High School presented a clever six-act vaudeville show in the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium of the school Wednesday afternoon.

Members of other classes and the faculty formed the audience. The first act was the "Stout Lady," in which Miss Elizabeth Stout sang a number of songs, including several local parodies.

Will Rogers, the famous larriat spinner and philosophical humorist, was represented by Archer Maxwell, presenting the "H. and A. Follies," and giving a clever monologue while he spun a rope.

Arnold Boxwell and Miss Bertha Hyman presented "The Foxy Company, trained dogs," consisting of some clever patter and featuring the enormous Great Dane owned by Boxwell, which added atmosphere to the act.

John Harvey Collins and Robert Downing gave an amusing dialogue and a series of entertaining songs. Miss Jane Hayward and Miss Helen Reutinger were clever as the "Long and Short Sisters," in which they presented an amusing dialogue.

The final act was a mock faculty meeting, in which pupils took the roles of teachers, and discussed the low marks and "bluffing" tactics used by some students in the class rooms. Faculty members found the portrayal of the meeting a truly good burlesque.

Pupils who took the part of teachers were: Miss Louise McCallister, representing Miss Fannie K. Haynes; Miss Pauline Owens, representing Miss Evangeline Metcalf; Miss Bertha Hyman as Miss Roxie Channell; Miss Elizabeth Piper as Miss Grigsby; Miss Mary Wilson as Miss Marie Weller, assistant principal; Miss Edna Swindler as Miss Agnes Ballantyne; George Perrill as Harper C. Pendry, principal; Harold Parrott as Carl Felger; Robert Finley as Fred Keeler; Clem Henrie as W. C. Boyce; Arnold Boxwell as Coach John Ballantyne; Clarence Vorhees as Byron Craynor and Robert Currie as V. L. Faires.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS

John Lumpkins, Dayton, Ohio, says: "Come to 7 Carrie St., and I will show you 25 pieces of gravel that passed after taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula). Had to get up 15 times at night for two years. Alright Now." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder like Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Sayre and Hemphill.

There will be about seventy-two graduates this year, slightly less than the number to receive diplomas last year.

MAKES FAT PEOPLE SLIM

New York Physician Perfects Harmless Method of Reducing Weight

The loss of as much as a pound of excess fat a day with no harmful results is the record made by many patients of Dr. R. Newman, a licensed practicing physician of 286 Fifth Avenue, New York, who announces that he has perfected a treatment which has quickly rid fat people of excess weight. What is more remarkable is the Doctor's statement that he has successfully treated thousands of patients for fat reduction without change of diet or unnecessary exercise. It is also said that fat people who suffer from chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma and high blood pressure obtain great relief. Realizing that this sounds almost too good to be true, the Doctor has offered to send without charge to anyone who will write him, a free trial treatment to prove his claims, as well as his "Pay-when-reduced" plan. If you want to rid yourself of superfluous fat, write him today, addressing Dr. R. Newman, 286 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Dept. R 34.—Adv.

"NOT POSSIBLE TO CLASSIFY"

BY MACK SAUER

NEW JASPER HOUSE WARMING

Exquisitely superior and delightful in every charming detail was the new Jasper house warming given by the highly accomplished and fastidious Mrs. Otto Mattie at her new and palatial home last night. Situated near the quiet and peaceful Little hamlet, the two-room hotel adapted itself admirably to such an occasion, there being only two rooms to warm.

Natural gas and electricity being far removed, the warming was done in a combination cooking and heating stove, which was polished to an exuberant state of brilliancy. The lid lifter, fire shovel and poker were hidden beneath the stove with the house cat and a couple of bricks which the charming hostess uses to keep her feet warm at night. The dining room table made an attractive centerpiece.

In the receiving line with the delightful Mrs. Mattie was Miss Abigail Smearcase, who was never more handsome than in her lovely gown of blue and white satin brocade, trimmed with cabochons of timothy hay. Over each shoulder was a thin blue ribbon making a suspender like effect. The gown was constructed with a drop effect of banana tangerine but the shoulder straps kept it from dropping. Her only ornament was a blue spot above her right eye, obtained when she forgot to stoop over on entering the little hotel.

Mr. Longfellow Smallpox wore sunburnt blue overalls with panel effect back and front, trimmed with dottings of milk stain, acquired while doing the evening milking. His coat was of the good wool variety and was purchased on the installment plan three years ago.

Elaborately scrumptious were the refreshments, consisting of oyster soup and pop corn balls. Vases placed here and there at vantage points proved of great advantage to the Honest Scrap chevers present. Several Hammer Club members were present.

SHUT UP!

Once I heard a mother mutter, 'Daughter, go and shut the shutter.' 'Shutter's shut,' the mutt did sputter. 'I can't shut it any shutter.'

Great Esteemed Orator McGinnis says the committee has reported favorably on Longfellow Smallpox for the Hammer Club. Several other applications have been received. A merchant near the Hammer Club Headquarters is among those who have petitioned.

UNDERTOOK TO UNDERTAKE

There was an old fellow named Blake, Whose wife baked an angel food cake; Poor Blake undertook To frown at the cook, Which he'll never again undertake.

Bought that used car yet? Better hurry! Dozens of real buys left, but they are going rapidly. Best prices of year this week.

SPECIAL HANDLING
POSTAL SERVICE IS NEW MAIL FEATURE

The new "special handling" postal service, provided by the last postal act passed February 28 by congress, offers new and speedier service for parcel post matter, according to Postmaster C. S. Frazer.

Mail in the special handling service is not handled as parcel post matter is customarily handled, as a "special handling" stamp makes the latter mail matter first class mail.

Its particular advantages apply to its handling enroute by railroad and other means of transportation facilities between the post office of dispatch and post office at the destination, declared Postmaster Frazer in explanation. In this way it is distinguished from the special delivery service where the chief advantages are obtained after the mail arrives at its destination.

The new law provides that matter in the special handling service shall receive the same expeditious handling, transportation and delivery accorded to first class mail matter. This service also has the insured C. O. D. privileges if paid for by the mailer.

Postage stamps of the proper denominations may be used in the new service but Postmaster Frazer urges mailers to use the regulation twenty-five cent stamps especially provided.

BRINGING UP FATHER

One Wife on Approval
by VIOLET DARE
AUTHOR OF "Luxury of Love," "The Husband Tamer," etc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

CYNTHIA LELAND'S husband, Jim, has gone to Honolulu shortly after their marriage, following a misunderstanding with his wife, and has taken his mother with him, leaving Cynthia to face the disapproval of her sister-in-law.

LOUELLA, and all her world. Cynthia turns to CECILE MALCOLM, leader of the town's gayest set, and accepts the friendship of NOEL GARDNER, the town's black sheep, going with them to a mid-winter house party at Cecile's mountain cabin.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT
XLVII—AN INSPIRATION

WHEN Doctor Hall was announced Cynthia met him in the hotel lobby. He took her out to his car at once, and they were well on their way to the Cliff House before he ventured to comment on Noel Gardner's arrival.

"Oh yes—he's an old friend of Jim's and mine," Cynthia told him. "Tell me—how is Jim? I phoned the hospital and they said that he was doing nicely, and that I might see him late this afternoon for a few moments. But I thought that perhaps you might know more than that."

"I saw his surgeon this morning, and Abbott said that your husband had come through wonderfully. Appendicitis isn't a serious matter these days, you know, unless something goes wrong. So you needn't worry about him. Now, take a look at our fair city, please. Who knows—you may live here some day?"

Cynthia turned abruptly to stare out of the car. He had given her an idea, by that casual remark of his. Why shouldn't she and Jim come here to live? Stranger things had happened. Jim's business was all that would make it impossible, if he could be persuaded to leave his home town and his family.

And how wonderful it would be to settle down somewhere far away from Madame Leland, where she could not come running in half a dozen times a day to see her son's household affairs were progressing and what her son's wife was doing! She dreamed during all their drive to the Cliff House.

She listened absently to the doctor's description of San Francisco's advantages and delights; her mind was on a possible future there with Jim. If only he could feel as she did. If only he could realize that his mother was monopolizing his life, unwisely.

To her, luncheon was interesting only because she and Jim might lunch at the Cliff House also some day, and the doctor mattered only because of his connection with the hospital where Jim lay ill. She was glad when at last they began their journey back to the center of town, and during the doctor's call on a patient she sat in the car restlessly, wondering how soon Jim would be well enough to talk with her.

She saw him that afternoon, but only for a short time. "There'll be some mail for me at the St. Thomas," he told her. "Would you mind calling for it and reading it? There might be something important."

"Oh, surely I'll do that," she glanced about the room helplessly; the roses that she had brought him

were the only note of color. "Isn't there something I can do for you, Jim?"

"Just your being here is enough," he answered weakly. "You'll stay till I'm well?"

"Why, of course! I'm with you forever."

"Cynthia, do you mean that?" he asked. "I had a note from my sister saying that you and Noel Gardner had gone away—and then there was your letter saying that—"

"Oh Jim, I don't know what Louella wrote you, or what you think of me, but I didn't mean any of it, truly," she exclaimed. "I love you—I know that now. I was terribly mistaken before."

The nurse appeared at that moment, telling her that she must go. She went back to her hotel happily, confident that everything was going to be all right at last. Even if she and Jim had to go back and live under his mother's wing, they would be happy.

Noel Gardner was waiting for her at the hotel. "You'll dine with me, won't you?" he urged. "I'm so darned lonely. I came chasing clear out here after you, and then you turn me down."

She dreamed during their drive to the Cliff House.

Do come."

After all, why not, Cynthia asked herself. She hesitated but a moment more, then nodded her head. "All right, I'll go. But give me time to dress. Come back in an hour, Noel, and I'll be ready."

"Come back," he echoed, with a cheerful grin. "I won't need to. I'm staying here."

Cynthia did not like that. Her brow puckered in a faint little frown as she made her way to the elevator. Surely it was not considerate of Noel to stay at her hotel, despite the fact that in San Francisco there was nobody who knew them to gossip about them.

"I suppose I ought to leave word at the desk where I can be reached, in case they should want me at the hospital," she told Noel when she joined him again and they turned toward the door. "Jim was doing wonderfully this afternoon, but there might be a change."

"All right—I'll do it for you," he answered, and sauntered back to the desk to speak to the clerk.

Cynthia had a feeling that she should have done it herself, but dismissed it as absurd. She was getting flustered, she told herself, after the strain of the trip across the country. Oh well, soon Jim would be able to be up again, and he and she would go away to some quiet place and have another honeymoon.

Tomorrow—Journey's End.

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds
and Investments

THE LAY EYE
A POOR JUDGE

If you know very little about investments and take the trouble to obtain expert advice on that subject follow it.

Recently the financial adviser of one of the foremost business newspapers in the country replied to the inquiry of a subscriber, suggesting that the first $5 of the Southern Railway maturing in 1924, were a suitable investment for him, and could be purchased through any good bank or bond house.

The prospective investor went to his bank to buy the bonds. When they came he turned them down, saying he thought they were forged because the signatures of the company's officers were smudged.

He wrote to the paper again, explaining the matter, and offered to send his $6,000 to the manager of the investor's department, a total stranger, to invest for him.

The manager answered in two sentences. "If a bank cannot determine the legality of a certain bond, who can? There are plenty of crooks who can sell you a piece of paper thoroughly satisfactory to your eye." The man went back to the bank and bought the bonds.

RESULTS THAT LAST

Proven by Xenia People.

Thousands of kidney sufferers have tried remedy after remedy with only temporary benefit. That's mighty discouraging! But the most annoying symptom was the irregularity of my kidneys. I felt languid and it seemed I couldn't get any rest. Doan's Pills from Donges' Drug Store cured me entirely.

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. Pohl said: "I have had no further occasion to use Doan's since they cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Pohl had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MAY FIX OTHER MURDERS ON SHEPHERD

STATE WILL EXHUME BODIES OF BILLY'S MOTHER AND DOCTOR

Believe Three Deaths May Be Laid To Seventeen Year Conspiracy.

Chicago, March 26.—Exhuming of the bodies of Mrs. William McClintock, mother of "Billy" McClintock, and Dr. Oscar Olson, brother of Judge Harry Olson,
chief instigator of the McClintock death probe, was to be sought by the state here today
in an effort to gather further evidence of the alleged seventeen years conspiracy which they declared culminated in the "typhoid murder" of Billy.

The petition for such an order already has been drawn up. International News Service learned today,
and according to the state's program, will be presented in circuit court before noon.

It states that both deaths occurred
under "peculiar circumstances"
which in the light of recent developments, warrant postmortem examination.

Chicago, March 25.—The long monotonous days of waiting behind prison bars—waiting for the pronouncement of his fate from the lips of a jury foreman—began today for William D. Shepherd.

The springtime dawn, which painted Chicago skies with red and gold and transformed the lake rippling
in front of his luxurious Kenilworth
home into a mighty sapphire, peeped through the high gridded windows in the age old county jail here to find a new occupant of "murderers row."

And in the eerie half-light of early morning Shepherd today looked an old, careworn man. There was a trace of silver near his temples, and there were lines in his face which had not shown ten days ago.

Jail officials said Shepherd had made no comment since the decision of the court late yesterday which denied him freedom on bail, pending his trial for murder for the death of William Nelson McClintock, his foster son for which he and "Dr."
Charles C. Falman stand indicted.

"Well boys I lost out; I'm likely to be with you a long time," he told bailiffs when they took him from the courtroom, but beyond that he maintained silence.

WITNESS IN KIRBY CASE SAYS POLAND IS ABOVE REPROACH

Receiver Admits Former Official Under Fire Has Control Of All Company Funds

Cleveland, O., March 26.—While state counsel plunged deeper into the books of the Cleveland Discount Company, in an effort to prove the charge that Josiah Kirby and Raymond L.
Poland, former officials in the company, had issued a false financial statement, Attorney Higley, counsel for Poland, drew the statement from William L. David, receiver of the company that "Poland is above reproach."

David answered the examination of Higley, which was intended to score for Poland with the admissions that Poland had charge of all of the money negotiable bonds since the company went into receivership and that he alone has the key and combination to the vault in which more than a million dollars in money and bonds are kept.

In his testimony, David showed the extent of the Cleveland Discount Company, which has been touted as the largest discount company in the country.

Objections flew thick and fast
when state counsel asked that Malcolm Love, public accountant, who made the income tax duplicate for the company in 1921, read from certain books of the company.

ARRESTED AFTER ATTACK ON GIRL

New Lexington, O., March 26.—After an all night search through the hills of Perry County by Sheriff Harley McNabb and a posse from Santoy, Calvin Walters, 35, colored, of Santoy,
was arrested here today by the sheriff
as he entered a restaurant. It is charged that Walters lay in wait near the store of Augustus Stors at Santoy
last night and as Stors' 16 year old daughter stepped out of the store, grabbed her.

Her father ran to her rescue and was shot and probably fatally wounded.

Walters denies the charge. When arrested, he had a 45 calibre revolver on his person, officials said. He was lodged in the county jail.

Measure Would Be Defeated In Referendum at Polls,
He Declares—Would Take Constitutional Rights
From People.

Columbus, O., March 26.—For the legislature to deny the people the right to select their candidates for office by primary system would be "an act of supreme impudence," and would be repudiated at a referendum,
former State Senator J. F. Burke, Elyria, declared today in a statement issued here. The movement, he asserted, is an effort by "the few men who have usurped the power of the people in big cities," to obtain the same power in the state at large.

Fate of the Aigler resolution, proposing amendment of the Ohio constitution to abolish the primary system for the selection of party candidates for state and district elective offices, was in doubt today, the next to last calendar day before the legislatures three weeks recess. House Republican leaders, at a caucus of the majority members, were only able to muster fifty-six votes in support of the measure while forty-one opposed

it. The resolution is expected to be amended today to retain the primary system for all but state offices and United States Senator in an effort to attract further support, but leaders believed it was a question whether the resolution would carry, as seventy-eight votes, or three fifths of the house membership, are required for adoption.

"America has been pretty thoroughly ingrained with the idea that all just powers are derived from the consent of the governed, and it has been the purpose of those who are carrying out the American idea and doctrine as far as possible to remove all obstacles in the way of the people having complete power to choose their candidates and their officials," former Senator Burke said in his statement.

"The few men who through one means or another have usurped the power of the people in big cities, are constantly trying to enact legislation which will grant them the same power in the state at large. But even those men have not dared to suggest that the right of the people as granted by the constitution to determine their own candidates be taken away from them. They have suggested legislation be enacted providing for a pre-primary convention whereby the bosses and politicians might unite upon a single candidate for whatever power their machinery might have in putting him over on the day of the primary. This they do without a primary as far as they can.
They feel they would be more certain of nominating their candidate if their power were first exercised in a convention which they more certainly can control than a state primary."

"For the legislature to propose a constitutional amendment to take away these rights from the people and deny them power to nominate their own candidates within their party would be an act of supreme impudence. It would be needless expense. The people would repudiate it by a quarter of a million votes and it would agitate the state politically as probably no other question has in several years."

Mr. Burke said that objections had been raised to the primary system
and that it had its faults, most of which have already been corrected,
but he asserted that even if only a fifty per cent of the voters participate in a primary, the number is far greater than ever took part in the old time caucuses, "in the most exciting political canvass ever conducted."

"And even with those who do not vote, the right exists, and why should this right be taken from them and the power which should be theirs practically lodged in the hands of a few professionals who are in it for what they can get out of it," Burke
continued. "At the same time, imagine it is well that the issue be put up in this form if there are those who think the people generally want to turn over their rights entirely to guardians, so that by the vote in the fall, notice can be served by the people themselves upon this group as to how they really feel about it."

The house Republican caucus approved the Sweeney resolution proposing an amendment to the state constitution to extend terms of elective officers to four years, after an amendment had been approved, limiting this extension to state and county offices.

The house is expected to vote on both the Aigler primary abolition resolution and the Sweeney four year term resolution today. The Aigler measure was reported by the house
elections committee late last night.

OHIOAN NAMED ON U. S. COMMITTEE TO VISIT BUILDING CONGRESS

Toledo Man Will Probably Head Delegation Named By Davis
For Paris Session

Washington, March 26.—Responding to the invitation of the French government for American participation in the fourth international congress of building trades and public works at Paris, June 15-21, Secretary of Labor Davis today named nine men prominent in the construction industry to compose the American delegation.

Those named were:

I. N. Houghton, Toledo, Ohio, who will probably be made chairman.

John W. Harris, New York; William Doyle, Philadelphia; Walter

Snow, secretary treasurer International Elevator Constructors.

Noble Foster Hoggson, New York;
Walter Stabler, New York; R. C.

Marshall, Jr., Associated General Contractors of America, Washington.

Eugene C. Lewis, Detroit; J. C.

Nichols, Kansas, City.

The congress which was organized by the French national federation will devote attention to the following subjects:

1.—Research of new ways and means to reduce the cost of building.

2.—Means employed by other countries to remedy the housing shortage, particularly affecting the so-called middle classes.

3.—Spreading of apprenticeships with a view of making up for the heavy losses caused by the world war among workmen in the building trades.

The American delegation will sail for Paris early in June and will be extensively entertained by the French government.

FIREMAN KILLED IN SERIES OF BLAZES

Binghamton, N. Y., March 26.—One fireman was killed and a score of others overcome by smoke in all-night fires, evidently started by a pyromaniac, who is being sought by police today. There were eight alarms in the business district within a few hours. The property loss will be a half million dollars.

Horace C. Brainard, a fireman, was drowned when the floor of the "coffee den," a restaurant, collapsed and carried him into the water filled basement. Battalion Chief Van Cleave was injured.

WILL REPORT PURE WATER AT GRAFTON

Columbus, O., March 26.—Formal report is to be made Friday to the legislature that an adequate, pure and potable water supply, sufficient to supply the proposed $1,000,000 institution for the feeble-minded, has been located on the Grafton farm site, near Elyria.

The report is to be drafted at a meeting this afternoon of the special legislative committee headed by Senator W. R. Comings, Lorain, which has been investigating the water supply.

WILL OPERATE BUS

Columbus, O., March 26.—W. P.
Dyerman, of Springfield, today filed application with the state utilities commission for permission to operate a motor truck route between Springfield and Dayton and intervening points.

COURT ATTEMPTS TO HURRY CASE BEFORE GIRL BREAKS DOWN

Night Sessions Will Be In Order if Jury Is Not Soon Chosen

San Francisco, March 28.—
Fearing that Dorothy Ellingson will break under the strain before a jury can be secured to try her for the murder of her mother, Judge Harold Louder back today took steps to speed up selection of the jury as the trial entered upon its fourth day.

He served notice on the attorneys for the state and defense that the sessions would be prolonged into the evening hours if a jury were not secured before five o'clock this afternoon. The belief was expressed as the court convened that under this pressure a jury would be quickly chosen and the trial proper gotten under way today.

The state and defense each had eight peremptory challenges remaining as the day started. As soon as the defense is satisfied with the makeup of the jury the state has announced it will accept it.

At the same time attorneys for the defense conferred with Joseph Ellingson, father of Dorothy, on a plan to petition the court to name a physician to examine the girl each morning before court opens and sit in attendance upon her throughout the trial. They are frankly apprehensive that her strength will fail under the strain. The girl, her father declared today, is not sleeping or eating.

Two women remain in the jury
box. The balance are middle aged men verging on elderly lines. One youth of 22, and another of 25, were oust by defense peremptory challenges. The trial settled down today as a test of physical endurance on the part of the 16 year old matricide.
Twice she has fallen in dead faints
at the conclusion of the courtroom ordeal. Once her nerves snapped under the strain of being photographed and again as she heard the name of her mother brought into the case.

"There is nothing fundamentally wrong with the girl," however, physicians say.

Roberts Scheduled To End
Argument For Government
At Morning Session

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 26.—Judicial determination of the famous Teapot Dome equity suit in which the United States government seeks to have cancelled the Sinclair lease on the rich Wyoming naval petroleum reserve is expected to be in the hands of Federal Judge T. Blake
Kennedy at noon today.

Owen Roberts, special government
oil counsel, will consume, he says,
about two hours in delivering the plaintiff's rebuttal to the two days and a half oral argument that has been presented by the defense in upholding the legality of the lease and denouncing the charges of fraud, conspiracy and secrecy, which the government has charged, surrounded negotiation and execution of the Sinclair contract. The hearing then will close.

It is expected both sides will be granted time in which to file written briefs in the case and little hope is held out for a decision by Judge Kennedy within two or three months.

SUICIDES AFTER MURDERING WIFE

Cincinnati, O., March 26.—Pearl
Smith, 35, a world war veteran, shell shocked and wounded, cut the throat of his wife Minnie, 30, from whom he was separated Wednesday night and then slit his own throat and wrists. He is dying. Smith left five notes, charging another man and his wife's relatives with causing his marital difficulties.

Smith asked that he and his wife
be buried in a double coffin, and that "the other man" not be permitted to see the bodies.

WILL EXAMINE CULT MEMBERS ON SANITY AFTER BRANDING REPORT

MEMBER OF STRANGE RELIGIOUS BAND IS LIVING SACRIFICE

Brother Of High Priestess Is Branded With Hot Poker
Preceding Dance In Nude

Orville, Calif., March 26.—Examination of the mental status of all persons who witnessed the placing of "mystic sacramental" brands on the body of Herman R. Schallow, Briggs, California, orchardist, in a ceremony conducted by the Assembly of God church of Gridley, California, may be ordered immediately. District Attorney Rothe announced today.

Rothe said he planned this action
following the alleged confession of Mrs. Anne Rhodes, known as the "roaring lion of Judea," that she applied the red hot poker to her brother's body a few days before he died.

Rothe said he would ask a sanity commission to act in the branding case and place the entire matter
before the grand jury.

At the same time Rothe said he might order that Schallow's body be exhumed and an autopsy performed.
He said he considered this step after it was discovered the dead man had his life insured for $2,000 a week before his branding death.

Mrs. Schallow was beneficiary of the policy.

According to Rothe, Mrs. Rhodes declared that before she branded
her brother, he had offered himself
as "a sacrifice to the holy ghost,"
but he said he did not expect to die
as a result of the strange ceremonial.
"A dance in the nude," Mrs.
Rhodes said, followed the branding party at which the woman applied
the fiery poker to Schallow's head and body, marking him with the "sign of the cross."

Edward Rhodes her husband, witnessed the branding, the woman said.

BELIEVE ROBBERS OF POSTOFFICE CAUGHT

Martins Ferry, O., March 26.—Two hours after the robbery of the Glen Robin postoffice was discovered this morning, a report was received there that two men had been arrested after a gun battle at Smithfield, in which one of the suspects was wounded.

Glen Robin authorities were informed that $200 loot stolen from the store of the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Company, in which the postoffice is located had been recovered and taken to Steubenville.

Unconfirmed reports were that the robbers were seeking whiskey runners when the suspects were spotted.
Less than $20 worth of postal funds were taken.

FORMER RECTOR DEAD

Marion, O., March 26.—Dr. Albert Cornell Jones, retired Episcopal rector, who presided as a member of the faculty of old Ohio Central College,
at Iberia, when the late President Warren G. Harding graduated, in 1882, died of uraemic poisoning at his home here today.

LEGISLATIVE PROBE OF COMMUNISM IN UNIVERSITIES WILL BE KILLED

Republican Leaders Will Rid Themselves Of Obstacle By Letting It Die In Appropriations Committee—Buchanan
Bill Still Is Buried

Columbus, March 26.—Painless gas treatment is expected to be used today by senate Republican leaders to rid themselves of the proposed legislative probe of the extent to which communistic, socialistic and atheistic doctrines have permeated instruction
at Ohio State, Ohio and Miami Universities, as proposed in the resolution of Senator James R. Hopley, of Crawford.

When the resolution comes up in stay there. They are expected to have
it referred to the finance committee,
on the ground that it carries an appropriation of $2,500 for expenses of the proposed probe of radical activities at the fountain heads of learning in the state. Once referred to finance committee, the leaders intend it shall stay there. They are expected to have their way, as only two more days remain of legislative labor before the three weeks recess to April 16.

If there is any fight on the resolution on the floor, it is expected to be led by Senator George H. Bender, Cuyahoga, who failed, when the measure was introduced to obtain suspension of the rules so that it could be considered at once, without waiting
the day required by the constitution.
The row over the "red" probe resolution is likely to be only one of several such battles which are expected to stir the legislature today. A spirited fight is expected in the senate over the Buchanan bill, providing for compulsory reading of the Bible in the public schools. The measure has yet to pass the obstacle of the senate calendar committee, which thus far has failed to list it for action on the "jittery" calendar.

Backers of the bill propose to force
the measure through the calendar by vote on the floor, either by a motion to discharge the committee of further consideration of the measure or by the radical step of amending the rules
to provide for a new committee—one which could be guaranteed to report
the bill for action by the senate.

The first move would require a two thirds vote and is not likely to be adopted. Only a majority is needed to provide a new committee.

The fight over the Bible bill, which already has passed the house is likely to be animated by charges that book publishers, who might expect to profit
by increased sales of Bibles, if the measure became law, were aiding in the movement to force the measure
through the senate.

Opposition voiced to Governor Don-

ahy Wednesday over the provisions of the Dempsey corporation tax bill are believed to have resulted in a determination of legislative leaders to amend the measure before it passes
the senate, so as to meet objections of domestic corporations. The measure is scheduled for passage in the senate today.

Amendments are likely to be inserted to give preference to domestic over foreign corporations in the levying of the corporation tax, before the bill is passed.

The Tallentire bill, giving charter
cities authority, by vote of the people to fix their own tax limitations, was being prepared for transmission to Governor Donahay today, after the house had concurred in senate amendments. The Edwards-Myers bill, providing for the licensing of fishermen,
at $ per year also, was ready to be sent to the governor.

NAUTCH GIRL TELLS STARTLING TALE IN INDIA MURDER CASE

Testifies She Was Mistress Of Maharajah And Mother Of Murdered Infant

Bombay, March 26.—An amazing story of ten years as the mistress of the Maharajah of Indore, of a visit to England under his protection, of the child born there, and the deliberate killing away with it, was told from the witness stand today by Mumtaz Begum, one time called "the most beautiful Nautch girl in India."

The girl, a shy type of Indian beauty, was the first witness called in the preliminary trial of ten men accused of connection with the murder of Mumtaz's lover and the mutilation of the sumptuous court of the Maharajah. She was the maharajah's mistress for ten years, she said,
and in regal state went with him on a visit to England.

She gave birth to a child there, she testified.

"What became of your child?"
counsel asked.

Mumtaz lowered her head. Her voice dropped almost to a whisper.
"It was murdered," she said.

JUSTICE RESERVES DECISION IN DENNISTOUN CASE

London, March 26.—Justice Mc-Cardie today reserved decision in the suit of Mrs. Dorothy Dennistoun against her former husband, Col. Ian Dennistoun, in which a jury awarded her $25,000 damages and $6,000 debt claims.

The case, which has been occupied by legal arguments from the time of the verdict until Justice McCardie's announcement today, has become a target for widespread comment.

The Daily Telegraph and other newspapers are defending British society, claiming that only a small portion of it has been represented in the vivid intrigues brought out in the Dennistoun testimony.

Canon Donaldson, of Westminster Abbey, on the other hand, in a statement published by the Evening Standard, declared the case filled him with revulsion. He said it reminded him of the decay of ancient Rome and the moral dissolution which preceded its final upbreak.

He announced that it was idle rich who foster false standards of worth and dignity.

THOMAS R. MARSHALL

and the Political Chameleons

The former Vice-President of the United States was brought up, so he says, in a political school that believed in party loyalty.

Mr. Marshall writes regularly for The Country Gentleman. "Bloss and Party Loyalty" is his article in the April 4th issue, and his views on "The Future of the Democratic Party" are coming soon.

DRESS WELL AND SUCCEED

Why You Should Own a Top Coat

No man is well-dressed whose clothes are at odds with the time of the year. A heavy-weight overcoat in lightweight weather is unbecoming and unfashionable, because it is unseasonable. Wearing such a garment in March dates a man's appearance back to December.

You should possess a Spring Top Coat because (1) It is warm enough for cool days and cool enough for warm days. (2) It looks smart and sensible and suitable to the season. (3) The change to a lighter coat from a heavy one refreshes and re-energizes one's spirit. (4) Carrying around oppressive weight and bulk, detracts from a man's 'pep,' efficiency and bodily well-being.

TIME TO DO LITTLE THINGS

EVEN the busy world today felt a little gasp of fine feeling when it learned from the newspapers that the President, reaching out from the mass of labor with which he is always surrounded, made permanent appointments in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing of two simple women, one a widow with three children, the other the sole support of an injured husband and two minor children. It was done under an executive order, the only instrument which makes such action possible, and by his gracious action two American homes and five American children were saved their home environment.

One of the women, Mrs. May B. Bowman, served for 11 years in the bureau. Her husband is David J. Bowman, a former plate printer, who was compelled to resign on account of an injury received in an accident. There are three children dependent on them for support. The other woman, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Sullivan, had served nearly ten years up to July 21, 1917, when she resigned to marry Charles A. Sullivan, a former plate printer in the bureau, whose death occurred October 1, 1924. His death was the result of ink poisoning received in line of duty. Mrs. Sullivan has dependent upon her two small children and a widowed mother.

This action on the part of the President demonstrates the fact that the really big men in public life can find time to aid those who are worthy of aid.

REMOVING THE DEADWOOD

JARDINE, the new secretary of agriculture, is acting like a real he-man, to use a trite but expressive phrase. It is hinted that he has already discovered that his primary problem in the Department is to really reorganize it into an effective going concern. It is regrettable but true that the Department of Agriculture, for all of the fine work which it has done, is honey-combed with imitation, useless and extravagant bureaus and subdivisions which are of no particular value. Mixing brains with the soil is now a recognized feature of farming life, but in various bureaus of the Department, in the attempt to build up organizations, the proportion of brains to common farm soil has become as nine to one.

The farmers of the country want facts, want advice, and are eager for instruction, but when it comes to the point where for the giving out of a five dollar fact a five thousand dollar bureau has to be organized, it is about time to call a halt. This may seem a want on exaggeration, but it is not far from the facts.

The sooner the deadwood and underbrush is cleared away, the sooner the Department of Agriculture will function as it really should, to the benefit of the farmers. That we understand is the goal toward which Jardine is moving.

THE FAITH OF THE TRAVELING MAN

Since I've been a bit of a traveling man
My heart goes out to the drummer
For I've learned a lot which I didn't know
In my younger days as I watched them go
When I envied them and their chance to ride
Over the country far and wide;
But I've lost the lure of a leather grip.
And I live in dread of another trip.
And I've shaped my life to a different plan.
For I haven't the faith of a traveling man!

I haven't that faith which can keep me strong
When I'm outward bound and the miles are long.
I can laugh and jest till the day is through.
But I can't keep up on a letter or two
And I long for the sight of a touselled head
And a healthy boy on his little bed.
In spite of the news which their mother writes
I haven't that faith for the lonely nights.
I frequently doubt what the letters tell
And I long to see them to know they're well!

But a traveling man must travel along
Whether matters at home are right or wrong.
He cannot go to their rooms at night

Many women prefer Terry Cloth capes to use over their bathing suits on the beach, but knitted beach capes are equally as pretty. To make a generously long cape, buy eight balls of lustre wool and one pair each of number four and one-half, number five, number six, and number seven amber needles.

Start at top of the cape, using the number four and one-half needles, and cast on 268 stitches. Row One: Knit 2, * P 2 sts. together, twice, yarn over; K 1, yarn over, K 1, yarn over, K 1, yarn over, P 2 together, twice, repeat from *, ending K 2 stitches plain.

Row Two: Purl across. Row Three: Knit across. Row Four: Purl across. Repeat these four rows for all the work, working eight inches down from the top, then changing to the number five needles and working eight inches more, then changing to the number six needles and working ten inches, and finally changing to the number seven needles and working 12 inches, ending with first row of pattern. Knit four rows plain, and bind off.

Border and Collar: With the number four and one-half needles, cast on ten sts., K 32 inches plain. Now start on collar, which is worked in K one row, P one row, always knitting the first ten stitches plain on the needle, then add the extra rows for border, and increasing on opposite end from border; this is the neck end and is sewed to the cape. Increase one stitch, every other row, till you have 50 stitches on the needle, then add the extra rows for fullness across the back, * starting on border edge, K to within eight sts. of end, turn, work back, work two rows on all sts., and repeat from * 17 times more.

Next, decrease same as increased till ten sts. remain, K one and one-half inches plain, on next row work buttonhole, K 3 sts., bind off four sts. K 3, on next row cast on four sts., over four bound off, K 30 and one-half inches, and bind off.
With double thread of yarn, gather top of cape into a space measuring

Pretty Model falls in Love with SKINNY CHAP WHO PUT ON GOOD FIRM FLESH. LOOKS 100% BETTER NOW. "Real Man" since he took gland treatment. Full of pep—"regular fellow" now.

Is it possible for a thin, bony, hollow-cheeked fellow to put on good solid flesh, fill out like a real red-blooded man, and get new pep and strength in LESS THAN A MONTH?

Not only does Miss Gloria Evans THINK so—SHE KNOWS SO. Her sweetheart was as "skinny as a broomstick, he was so pale, nervous and unhealthy-looking he seemed like a walking ghost." Then, secretly at first, he started in taking Kath, a wonderful new gland treatment he heard about, and in three weeks time he added 18 lbs. of fine strong flesh. Pretty soon his face took on a fine healthy glow, he felt new vitality surging in his veins. Then he "popped the question" to the beautiful Miss Evans, and she quickly said "Yes." As Jack now writes, both were in a "seventh heaven."

Kath is the much talked-about genuine extract of glands which gives a new start to the flesh forming and strength building fluids that are now lying idle or worn out from overwork, worry, excesses, nervousness. ## Today's Talks

SIMPLICITY

There is an idea afloat that a work of art must have elaborate detail. As a matter of fact all great art is simply made so plain and understandable that a child may grasp it.

He who makes beauty felt vaster than anything seen, who compels a horde of debtors to bend the knee in holy reverence at the simple revelation of nature and character, whether from the simplest expression of a flower's smile, or the softest note from a song bird's throat, or the silent wave of a single blade of green grass—that one is himself a kind of phantasm poem or a piece of inspired prose.

You may honestly look upon such a one as a great artist.

I was looking at a wonderful Royal Palm tree today. I was thrilled by its marvelous simplicity and its rising grace of curve. These nights I have opened my heart for hours to let in its loveliness under the golden moon, and as it has been shadowed behind passing clouds, or was washed by the heavy rain.

There is nothing simpler than the vast ocean. And yet how few there have been whose ability has transferred its soul to canvas. How many Winslow Homers has the world produced?

The simplest gown on a woman is always the most beautiful and effective.

ive. The piece of furniture that the fewest lines which extend graceful curves is always the best.

Simplicity in living is the healthful.

The small mind gets easily fused. But he who thinks in though simple terms, ploughs through difficulty and comes out strong and able.

All basic principles are as Great writing is the simplest and the largest number may grasp meaning, as for example such works as Shakespeare, Milton Bible.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

Stop Night Coughing This Simple Way

People who have persistent, annoying coughing spells at night, and who through loss of valuable sleep are weakening their systems and laying themselves open to dangerous infections, can stop their distressing trouble promptly by a very simple treatment. Hundreds who have hardly been able to rest at all for coughing, have gotten their full night's sleep the very first time they tried it.
The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.
The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. It is on sale at all good druggists. Ask for

Six suits, involving $1,635.76, have been filed in Common Pleas Court by F. A. Jackson, county treasurer, through City Solicitor J. A. Finney, with the authorization of the City Commission against seven Xenia property owners to collect alleged unpaid street improvement and paving assessments.

An ordinance was passed by the City Commission July 19, 1922, levying special assessments on all lots abutting and bounding various streets in Xenia in order to pay the property owners' share of the cost of improving the streets, according to the petition.

The seven defendants named were assessed and the property assessments became a lien on the passage of the ordinance, it is alleged in the petition.

The petition states that these assessments were certified by the city auditor to the county auditor for collection in ten annual installments as provided by law and placed on the tax duplicate by him.

The plaintiff claims that the defendants failed to pay their assessments and were thereby delinquent and subject to the 5 per cent penalty. He requests that the various properties described in the petition be sold and the proceeds applied in payment of the assessments.

Defendants named in the petitions with their alleged delinquencies include Homer O. Hudson, with property on South West Street, $156.42; Jesse B. Hudson, South West Street, $297.63; John T. Barnett, property on Home Avenue and Whitman Street, $207.75 and $410.46; Eugene Valentin, East Main Street, three tracts of land, $25.29, $20.99 and $165.14; Bessie Williams and Minnie McCortick, Xenia, $174.08; Flora Leach, East Main Street, $178.

ERIE RAILROAD GETS NEW RIGHT OF WAY IN BATH TOWNSHIP

The first step in the re-location of the Erie Railroad, branch line of the Big Four Railroad, in Bath Township, was taken Thursday when a deal transferring a strip of about seventy-five acres of land in the southern edge of Osborn to the railroad by the Miami Conservancy District was consummated in the County Auditor's office. Nevin and Kalfbus, Dayton law firm, completed the deal.

Thirty-two small property deeds involving a strip of land about ninety feet wide, gives the railroad the right-of-way through Bath Township and will enable it to re-locate the branch line between Dayton and Springfield outside the rim of the flood district.

Installation of the conservancy dam about four years ago necessitated the re-building of the railroad in what is known as the flood district, low land upon which back water or surplus water is deposited in the event of heavy rains or a possible flood danger.

The re-location makes the right-of-way between Springfield and Dayton slightly longer but minimizes any danger of flooding the tracks with water.

COMPANY L ANNUAL CAMP TRIP WILL BE FROM AUGUST 2 TO 16

Members of Company L, 147th Infantry, Ohio National Guard, will again take the fourteen days of training at Camp Perry, O., this year, Captain Leroy John announced Thursday. The training period this year extends from August 2 to August 16.

The entire company, which comprises sixty men and three officers, will make the trip.

Company L attended the training camp the last two weeks in August in 1924 but since it is a unit of the 74th Brigade, which will train the first two weeks in August this year, the change in date was made.

All types of drill maneuvers, target practice and sports are included in the training. A sham battle at the close of the period will feature the trip.

Last year Company L carried off a majority of the honors in sports and drill and is counting on upholding its hard won laurels again this year.

DISMISS ONE CASE; ANOTHER IS HELD

A charge of possessing liquor against Jennie Hickman, colored, East Third Street, was dismissed Thursday afternoon by Police Judge E. D. Smith for lack of evidence.

Arthur Comfort, colored, this city, is being held at Police Headquarters on a charge of possessing liquor. He will probably be arraigned in Police Court Friday, it was announced.

Comfort was arrested Monday by Patrolman Thompson who gave chase when the former fled from the Hickman home with a bottle of liquor in each hand police say.

Comfort broke the bottles when he saw that his arrest was inevitable but Patrolman Thompson sponged up part of the fluid.

GIRL BANDIT GETS CONSTABLE'S MONEY

Dayton, O., March 26—Initial appearance of a "flapper bandit" in Dayton was recorded at Police Headquarters when Hubert M. Elliot, colored constable attached to Judge McCray's court complained that he had been held up by a girl Wednesday and robbed of $25. He said a "flapper bandit" with bobbed hair poked a blue steel automatic into his face and told him in a business like way to "put em up."

MICHAEL T. GRAHAM DIES AT HOSPITAL

Michael T. Graham, 65, died at the McClellan Hospital, Thursday at noon, after suffering a heart attack while recovering from a suicide attempt made a few days ago. Mr. Graham had suffered from heart trouble for some time and his ill health had caused despondency.

He slashed his wrists Monday at midnight and was rushed to the hospital the following morning. Although seriously ill from loss of blood and weakness physicians held hope for his recovery until Thursday when his condition became critical.

Mr. Graham was employed as nurse at the Greene County Infirmary until ill health forced him to give up his work.

Besides his widow he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William Haines and Thomas Graham of Dayton, James Graham and Miss Irene Graham, at home.

Funeral services will be announced later.

CHILD IS KILLED PLAYING MOVIES

Dayton, O., March 26—Mildred Grice, 4, daughter of S. E. Grice, cement contractor, was instantly killed in the front yard of her home at Harshmanville Wednesday afternoon when she was shot through the right lung by a five-year-old playmate while playing "movies."

Billy Bower, son of Charles Bower, prominent Dayton florist, fired the fatal shot while enacting a scene from the movies for the benefit of the little girl.

Coroner Torrence rendered a verdict of "accidental death from revolver wounds" because of the extreme youth of the boy.

RETURNED TO HAMILTON

WOMEN FAVOR RED SAYS FRED C. KELLY IN LATE MAGAZINE

Fred C. Kelly, former Xenian, well known author and magazine contributor, has an article entitled, "You Can Improve Your Looks by Wearing the Right Colors" in the current issue of the American Magazine.

Kelly tells of his observations on the selection of the right and wrong colors in wearing apparel and the story deals with Matthew Luckiesh, director of the laboratory of applied science at the National Lamp Works of the General Electric Company in Cleveland. Mr. Luckiesh has for years been making studies of light and colors for use in practical affairs and has written several books on the subject.

Kelly didn't forget the old home town either. He asked Luckiesh what the most popular color is. Luckiesh answered that as to the favorite hue, all experiments have conclusively demonstrated that the female of the human species like red best of all, with blue second and violet closely following.

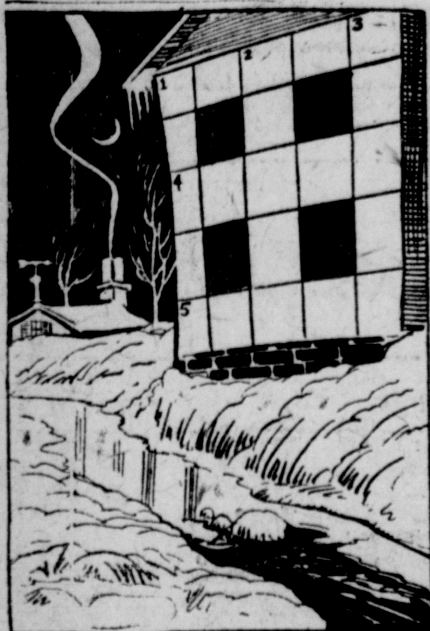

"Do you mean to say," Kelly asked, "that if I walked up Fifth Avenue in New York or stop at Main and Detroit Streets in Xenia, O., and asked the first hundred women I meet to tell me their favorite color the majority will say 'Red'?"

"Not exactly that," replied Luckiesh. "A majority of all you ask wouldn't say 'red' but the number who say 'red' will probably be larger than the group for any other one color."

BROTHER SHOTS SISTER IN ACCIDENT

Warren, O., March 25.—Unmindful of the serious bullet wound which may take her life, seventeen year old Frances Walewicz lies in a hospital here today worried because her brother Edward, 15, admitted that he inflicted the wound after she had told her mother and authorities that she had shot herself.

The girl was shot through the abdomen, the bullet emerging from her back. Monday morning, when her brother accidentally discharged a 22 calibre rifle, while he was showing her what progress he had made as a marksman following a morning of target shooting with the newly acquired gun at their home at North Bristol, near here. Edward picked up the gun and pulled the trigger. Frances fell to the floor. She rose and ran upstairs to her room and fell upon her bed, where her mother found her. She said she had shot herself. But Edward told Prosecuting Attorney W. W. Pierson today that he fired the shot. Edward is being held pending death or recovery of his sister.

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength), at Sohn's Drug Store, Sayre and Hemphill and start to reduce the veins and bunches at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal. It is guaranteed.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that enlarged glands, wens and even goitre disappear when used steadily.—Adv.

Mrs. Ashcroft's Remarkable
Recovery After Taking Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Covington, Ky.—"I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my housework as I could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do in that way—as washing dishes, etc. One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine was put in my mail-box. I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood medicine for poor blood. I was cold all the time. I would be so cold I could hardly sit still and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sanative Wash and I recommend it also. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."—Mrs. HARRY ASHCROFT, 632 Beech Avenue, Covington, Kentucky.

WHITE SOX BLOSSOM OUT AS FULL FLEDGED DARK HORSE IN RACE

BY HAROLD JOHNSON

Shreveport, La., March 26—Baseball prognosticators who annually grapple with the dope, venturing opinions on the pennant outlook will be guilty of no miscalculations in the event they proclaim Comiskey's White Sox a full blown dark horse entry. This is the judgment of diamond veterans and writers who have observed the club which in 1924 finished in the American League basement twenty-five games behind the champion Senators.

During three weeks of intensive training here under the leadership of Manager Eddie Collins, a fighting spirit such as characterized the pale hose of 1917 again pervaded the camp. It is generated by Collins and his dynamic direction of the squad, whether in games against minor leaguers or among the split seconds of the Sox themselves, has been an outstanding feature of the daily proceedings.

Collins, beloved by every member of his team, is a natural leader. He has the wholehearted co-operation of his men.

Judging from the manner in which Collins is proceeding with his material, bell time at Detroit on April 14 will see virtually the same lineup that campaigned so indifferently in 1924.

But it will be a fighting crew. Numerous recruits plucked from independent ranks, were given the acid test when the conditioning routine was launched and Eddie was quick to wield the pruning knife. The chief concern of the new tactician, is the choice of a competent shortstop and the development of an effective south-paw pitcher. Otherwise his worries are of a minor nature.

Three sterling performers have been fighting for the short field assignment and each is fully qualified to play the position. Harvey McClellan perhaps is the flashiest fielder of the trio which includes Ink Davis, obtained in midseason of 1924 from Columbus, and Johnny Butter, last year with Wichita.

Thirteen pitchers now grace the Sox roster and five of these are slated to pasture elsewhere when Collins has completed his housecleaning.

Faber, Blankenship, Robertson, Connally, Lyons, Leverette, Cvangros, Mangum and Thurston are listed as the veterans with Steen-grafe, Ash, Davenport and Foreman practically newcomers, though Steen-grafe and Davenport have been on and off the roster in other seasons. It now appears as though Faber, Blankenship, Robertson, Lyons, Connally, Thurston, Cvangros and Mangum are fixtures although Collins is broadcasting no information regarding his plans in the curving department.

Sheely at first, Collins at second, and Kamm at third, are all fixtures of course, on the infield, while the outfield now lines up with the same fly chasers who were carried last year, namely Falk, Hooper, Mostil, Archdeacon, Barrett and Elsh.

In addition to the veteran Ray Schalk, who appears fit for a banner season and Crouse and Grabowski, who were employed last season, the catching staff numbers George Bischoff, obtained from Fort Worth. All three second stringers to Schalk, are of high calibre but one of this group must be eliminated.

Bowling

In taking three straight games from the Bayliffs Wednesday night, the Quoit Club bowling team kept pace with the Arcade "5," leaders of the bowling league, and remained in the running for the championship. The winners had a narrow squeeze in the final game winning by three pins.

William Smith had high score with 216 and also high average of the match. Box score:

MINES IN MINE WHERE EXPLOSION OF GAS CAUSED DEATHS TOLD IN LETTER

A. D. DeHaven, West Market street, has received a letter from his late friend, George W. Jefferys, East Park Avenue, Fairmont, W. Va., railroad engineer who was a member of the rescue squad that worked fifty nights and day in an effort to reach the thirty-four miners entombed by an explosion in the Bethlehem Mines Corporation plant at Barville. The letter contains a detailed description of the disaster and terrible experiences and dangers which rescue workers were exposed to.

The letter says in part: "Just a line before I go to bed. I nearly died from fatigue. The day I was home I offered my life to Lambie, chief of the mine rescue squad, as I belong to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad rescue squad of course I was accepted on the spot. Since Thursday at 10 a. m. up Friday at 10 a. m. I have been lying on the advance rescue squad, 'on' then rest an hour, and again for six hours more and so on as long as a fellow can carry on, until he becomes exhausted. I stuck pretty good until my lungs and drums began to play out on account of the 'after damp,' a highly poisonous gas formed after the explosion."

Doctor, old pal, it is utterly impossible to describe the scene above and around the shaft cage and pile. The shaft is 350 feet deep, fourteen by twenty feet in diameter. The cage and tippie on top of shaft, ninety-five feet high, weighed 100 tons, was torn and twisted out of all resemblance and was literally torn 1,000 yards up the hillside. A stone building, the engine room, 100 feet by 80 feet, standing 100 yards from the shaft, was leveled to the ground, in fact every one of thirty buildings, around the mine was torn and shattered."

"I was third in line in the first rescue squad to enter the B. O. D. 'H' headings and rooms. My equipment was one Gibbs oxygen forty-hour helmet, with nose, mouthpiece and face cover of duraluminum, rubber suit heated electrically, glasses, life whistle strung around neck within reach of my lips, twenty-hour electric helmet light battery, small ax and chisel, life line to be connected to the man behind me, one small siren for the purpose of calling for help, and of all, but the most important, a yellow canary bird in a tiny cage strapped to my right thigh. Poor little bird, he gave his life for me. I could save mine. The birds are very susceptible to the deadly fire fumes, perfectly odorless but as poisonous as cyanide potassium. I had unhooked my belt and started down a mine to turn a body that I had found on its back and I ran into the mine. When I saw the little fellow in the cage gasp and fall over, I turned

"Albert, the sight that met my eyes when I entered 'H' heading almost floored me. I hope to God that I may never, never, as long as I live, see such a sight again. Death and desolation on every hand and for a while I thought my sanity would leave me. The heading was sixteen feet wide and three miles long and right in front within ten feet of what might have spelled safety lay a father and his sixteen year old son."

"The boy had his left arm blown completely off. His father had shouldered him and wrapped his jacket around his head to ward off the gas as much as possible and staggered to within ten feet of the air shaft when he evidently got too weak to carry him and tried to drag him along on the rail, but smothered to death before he could reach the air course. 'He almost had life within his grasp only to lose it and above him on the wall of the heading he had written in his last few seconds the words, 'I've done my best. Donald is dying and my lungs are on fire. God keep Minnie, my mother.' He evidently intended

"Can you imagine the agony of mind and body, the physical suffering, the thoughts of his loved ones 350 feet above him, that the poor fellow went through. Doctor, old pal, when I comprehended it all, it made me wonder why God allowed such a drama to be enacted there in all of its pitiful suffering and let some other fool live outside."

"It made my throat fill up with a lump and I am not ashamed to say I offered up a little prayer for those first two martyrs, for martyrs they are, both of them. The next sight to meet my eyes was a dead motor-man who must have kept his dog inside with him for he was on his knees with his coat over his dog (a little fox terrier) crouching between his knees. I expect his last thought was to protect his little dog. The poor little dog no doubt would have given his life for his master just as freely, could he have done so."

NEW TRAFFIC DEVICE REDUCES CHANCES OF CROSSING ACCIDENTS

Installation of a flash signal traffic warning device, electrically controlled, at the Trebeins double railroad crossing, reduces to a minimum the possibility of accidents at that crossing, according to J. E. Daly, assistant trainmaster of the Cincinnati Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad here.

The statement is issued in refutation of a report given publicly some time ago, in which the crossing was branded as dangerous because the device installed there operated solely when Pennsylvania trains were approaching and would cause the autoist into a sense of security if a train approached on the parallel Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks.

The device is connected with tracks of both railroads so that it operates at the approach of trains on any track, but at the time the report was made public, it had just been installed and was not placed in service, according to Mr. Daly. He believes this fact led to the erroneous report.

The new signal consists of two red lights mounted on a single standard that flash alternately, giving the appearance of a swaying red light. The device is said to be 93 percent perfect, and is endorsed by the American Railway Association, and the Ohio State Utilities Commission. According to Mr. Daly, Chambers of Commerce in some cities have asked that it be installed to replace watchmen now employed.

PUPILS OF JUNIOR CLASS OFFER SIX ACT VARIETY SHOW

Members of the junior class of Central High School presented a clever six-act vaudeville show in the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium of the school Wednesday afternoon.

Members of other classes and the faculty formed the audience. The first act was the "Stout Lady," in which Miss Elizabeth Stout sang a number of songs, including several local parodies.

Will Rogers, the famous larial spinner and philosophical humorist, was represented by Archer Maxwell, presenting the "H. and A. Folies," and giving a clever monologue while he spun a rope.

Arnold Boxwell and Miss Bertha Hyman presented "The Fox Company, trained dogs," consisting of some clever patter and featuring the enormous Great Dane owned by Boxwell, which added atmosphere to the act.

John Harvey Collins and Robert Downing gave an amusing dialogue and a series of entertaining songs. Miss Jane Hayward and Miss Helen Reutinger were clever as the "Long and Short Sisters," in which they presented an amusing dialogue.

The final act was a mock faculty meeting, in which pupils took the roles of teachers, and discussed the low marks and "bluffing" tactics used by some students in the class rooms. Faculty members formed the portrayal of the meeting a truly good burlesque.

Pupils who took the part of teachers were: Miss Louise McCallister, representing Miss Fannie K. Haynes; Miss Pauline Owens, representing Miss Evangeline Metcalf; Miss Bertha Hyman as Miss Roxie Channell; Miss Elizabeth Piper as Miss Grigsby; Miss Mary Wilson as Miss Marie Weller, assistant principal; Miss Edna Swindler as Miss Agnes Ballantyne; George Perrill as Harper C. Penderly, principal; Harold Parrott as Carl Felger; Robert Finley as Fred Keeler; Clem Henrie as W. C. Boyce; Arnold Boxwell as Coach John Ballantyne; Clarence Vorhees as Byron Craynor and Robert Currie as V. L. Falres.

EDDIE GUEST WILL GIVE GRADUATION ADDRESS THIS YEAR

Edgar A. Guest, Detroit, Mich. poet, whose poems, under the heading "Just Poems," appear daily in the Gazette, and the Republican, will probably deliver the commencement oration at the graduation exercises of Central High School this year.

The ceremonies will be held May 29 at the First M. E. Church according to announcement of C. A. Waltz, city school superintendent. Guest delivered the graduation address at Cedarville College last summer and at that time accepted an invitation from Superintendent Waltz to come here for the high school exercises.

Superintendent Waltz will open correspondence with the Detroit poet soon to confirm this acceptance.

SAFE FOR CHILDREN

Mothers everywhere demand a reliable cough remedy free from injurious narcotics. Supplying this demand for fifty years made FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND one of the Largest Selling Cough Medicines in the World. Children like it. "My little boy had a very bad cough, and after he used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND he got relief at once," writes Mrs. Van Belle, Penroy, Mont. Refuse substitutes. Sold Everywhere.—Adv.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS

John Lumpkins, Dayton, Ohio, says: "Come to 7 Carrie St., and I will show you 25 pieces of gravel that passed after taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula.) Had to get up 15 times at night for two years. Alright Now." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder like Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Sayre and Hemphill. Adv.

There will be about seventy-two graduates this year, slightly less than the number to receive diplomas last year.

RED CROSS CHAPTER TO RECEIVE FUNDS FOR STORM VICTIMS

The Rev. W. H. Tilford, chairman of the Greene County Red Cross has received a letter from John Barton Payne, chairman of the American Red Cross, authorizing the local chapter to accept in behalf of the American Red Cross for transmittal to National Headquarters at Washington, all contributions for the relief of the tornado sufferers in various parts of the country.

The American National Red Cross has been engaged in administering relief to disaster sufferers throughout the entire area affected by the recent tornado almost from the moment of its occurrence.

James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of Domestic Operations and Henry M. Baker, National Director of Disaster Relief, were both in St. Louis when the tornado struck and assumed direct charge of the relief work in Missouri, Indiana and Illinois, which is being administered as one operation from the St. Louis Branch office.

Relief work in Kentucky, Tennessee, and Alabama is being administered from National Headquarters at Washington, D. C.

MAKES FAT PEOPLE SLIM

New York Physician Perfects Harmless Method of Reducing Weight

The loss of as much as a pound of excess fat a day with no harmful results is the record made by many patients of Dr. R. Newman, a licensed practicing physician of 286 Fifth Avenue, New York, who announces that he has perfected a treatment which has quickly rid fat people of excess weight. What is more remarkable is the Doctor's statement that he has successfully treated thousands of patients for fat reduction without change of diet or unnecessary exercise. It is also said that fat people who suffer from chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma and high blood pressure obtain great relief. Realizing that this sounds almost too good to be true, the Doctor has offered to send without charge to anyone who will write him, a free trial treatment to prove his claims, as well as his "Pay-when-reduced" plan. If you want to rid yourself of superfluous fat, write him today, addressing Dr. R. Newman, 286 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Dept. R 34.—Adv.

NEW JASPER HOUSE WARMING

Exquisitely superior and delightful in every charming detail was the auspicious house warming given by the highly accomplished and fastidious Mrs. Otto Mattie at her new and palatial home last night. Situated near the quiet and peaceful little hamlet, the two-room hotel adapted itself admirably to such an occasion, there being only two rooms to warm.

Natural gas and electricity being far removed, the warming was done in a combination cooking and heating stove, which was polished to an exuberant state of brilliancy. The lid lifter, fire shovel and poker were hidden beneath the stove with the house cat and a couple of bricks which the charming hostess uses to keep her feet warm at night. The dining room table made an attractive centerpiece.

In the receiving line with the delightful Mrs. Mattie was Miss Abigail Smearcase, who was never more handsome than in her lovely gown of blue and white satin brocade, trimmed with cabochons of timothy hay. Over each shoulder was a thin blue ribbon making a suspender like effect. The gown was constructed with a drop effect of banana tangerine but the shoulder straps kept it from dropping. Her only ornament was a blue spot above her right eye, obtained when she forgot to stoop over on entering the little hotel.

Mr. Longfellow Smallpox wore sunburst blue overalls with panel effect back and front, trimmed with dotings of milk stain, acquired while doing the evening milking. His coat was of the good wool variety and was purchased on the installment plan three years ago.

Elaborately scrumptious were the refreshments, consisting of oyster soup and pop corn balls. Vases placed here and there at vantage points proved of great advantage to the Honest Scrap chewsers present. Several Hammer Club members were present.

SHUT UP!

Once I heard a mother mutter,
'Daughter, go and shut the shutter.'
'Shutter's shut,' the mut did sputter.
'I can't shut it any shutter.'

Great Esteemed Orator McGinnis says the committee has reported favorably on Longfellow Smallpox for the Hammer Club. Several other applications have been received. A merchant near the Hammer Club Headquarters is among those who have petitioned.

The eliminating system of the body might be compared to the sanitary department of a city—the smoke inspecting department to the lungs; the street cleaning department to the skin; the sewers to the kidneys, and the scavenger's wagon to the bowels. An efficient sanitary department means a clean, healthy and beautiful city and efficient eliminating system means the same state of affairs in the body. Let but one of these functions in either city or body fail to do its work and the city or body as a whole suffers.

It was some such trouble that brought a friend of mine for advice. One of his body cleaning departments had begun to slough and there were various symptoms presenting themselves that warned him it was time to put matters into shape.

Being an ordinary being, he imagined that his body was immune to disease, and that he could abuse and put anything into his body that he desired or that his appetite dictated. He had smoked and chewed tobacco and had indulged in alcohol in a glass of beer or whiskey. He had always answered the "call to mess" and did his share in keeping up the high cost of living every time he sat down to the table. He had consumed ham, bacon, salt pork, meats and fowl, lobsters, oysters and clams, vinegars and soups, as well as spoiled foods of various kinds, tea, coffee, pastry and denatured foods galore—all eaten without regard to proper combinations and without any idea of what happened to them when they got into the alimentary tract. One of the eliminative channels of his body—the kidneys, had become clogged with waste material and poisonous substances, and being just human flesh and blood, had broken down under the strain of trying to eliminate from the body substances for which Nature had made no provision, and consequently an inflammation had set in—he had acquired that insidious disease that takes away some of the best people in the land, chronic nephritis or Bright's disease.

Bright's disease is the price those who transgress the laws of right living have to pay for their failure to realize that they are but human.

People who don't ever get fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Dr. Bowen's Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., General Motors Bldg., Detroit, Mich. By doing this you will be able to reduce steadily and easily and without any starvation diet a tiresome exercise. Start taking them today and get slender.

Getting Too Fat? Try This—Reduce

Dr. Bowen's Prescription For Hot Flashes

You no longer need suffer in silence, the distress that is nature's burden for women at the critical period of life. Dr. Bowen's tablets are guaranteed to bring quick and safe relief for Hot Flashes and accompanying symptoms without interfering in any way with the course of nature.

This is the same prescription that Dr. Bowen used during his life. It has been prescribed by his successor for over 30 years with never failing results thereby winning the praise of hundreds of grateful women.

On urgent appeals he has now consented to offer it to every woman suffering from this cause.

At your druggist or send druggist name and $1.25 for full sized package of Dr. Bowen's prescription, Lagonda Laboratories Company, Springfield, Ohio—Adv.

SPECIAL HANDLING POSTAL SERVICE IS NEW MAIL FEATURE

The new "special handling" postal service, provided by the last postal act passed February 28 by congress, offers new and speedier service for parcel post matter, according to Postmaster C. S. Frazer.

Mail in the special handling service is not handled as parcel post matter is customarily handled, as a "special handling" stamp makes the latter mail matter first class mail.

Its particular advantages apply to its handling enroute by railroad and other means of transportation facilities between the post office of dispatch and post office at the destination. In this way it is distinguished from the special delivery service where the chief advantages are obtained after the mail arrives at its destination.

The new law provides that matter in the special handling service shall receive the same expeditious handling, transportation and delivery accorded to first class mail matter. This service also has the insured C. O. D. privileges if paid for by the mailer.

Postage stamps of the proper denominations may be used in the new service but Postmaster Frazer urges mailers to use the regulation twenty-five cent stamps especially provided.

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds
and Investments

THE LAY EYE
A POOR JUDGE

If you know very little about investments and take the trouble to obtain expert advice on that subject follow it.

Recently the financial adviser of one of the foremost business newspapers in the country replied to the inquiry of a subscriber, suggesting that the first $5 of the Southern Railway maturing in 1924, were a suitable investment for him, and could be purchased through any good bank or bond house.

The prospective investor went to his bank to buy the bonds. When they came he turned them down, saying he thought they were forged because the signatures of the company's officers were smeary.

He wrote to the paper again, explaining the matter and offered to send his $5,000 to the manager of the investor's department, a total stranger, to invest for him.

The manager answered in two sentences. "If a bank cannot determine the legality of a certain bond, who can? There are plenty of crooks who can sell you a piece of paper thoroughly satisfactory to your eye." The man went back to the bank and bought the bonds.

Proven by Xenia People.

Thousands of kidney sufferers have tried remedy after remedy with only temporary benefit. That's mighty discouraging! But one kidney remedy has earned a reputation for lasting results and there's plenty of proof right here in Xenia.

Read the experience of one who used Doan's Pills years ago and now makes her endorsement even stronger.

Mrs. David Pohl, 751 W. Second St., Xenia, says: "I suffered with lame back quite frequently, but the most annoying symptom was the irregularity of my kidneys. I felt languid and it seemed I couldn't get any rest. Doan's Pills from Dones' Drug Store cured me entirely."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. Pohl said: "I have had no further occasion to use Doan's since they cured me."

One Wife on Approval by VIOLET DARE

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

CYNTHIA LELAND'S husband, Jim, has gone to Honolulu shortly after their marriage, following a misunderstanding with his wife, and has taken his mother with him, leaving Cynthia to face the disapproval of her sister-in-law.

LOUELLA, and all her world. Cynthia turns to

CECILE MALCOLM, leader of the town's gayest set, and accepts the friendship of NOEL GARDNER, the town's black sheep, going with them to a mid-winter house party at Cecile's mountain cabin.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT
XLVII—AN INSPIRATION

WHEN Doctor Hall was announced Cynthia met him in the hotel lobby. He took her out to his car at once, and they were well on their way to the Cliff House before he ventured to comment on Noel Gardner's arrival.

"Oh, yes—he's an old friend of Jim's and mine," Cynthia told him. "Tell me—how is Jim? I phoned the hospital and they said that he was doing nicely, and that I might see him late this afternoon for a few moments. But I thought that perhaps you might know more than that."

"I saw his surgeon this morning, and Abbott said that your husband had come through wonderfully. Appendicitis isn't a serious matter these days, you know, unless something goes wrong. So you needn't worry about him. Now, take a look at our fair city, please. Who knows—you may live here some day?"

Cynthia turned abruptly to stare out of the car. He had given her an idea, by that casual remark of his. Why shouldn't she and Jim come here to live? Stranger things had happened. Jim's business was all that would make it impossible, if he could be persuaded to leave his home town and his family.

And how wonderful it would be to settle down somewhere far away from Madame Leland, where she could not come running in half a dozen times a day to see her son's household affairs were progressing and what her son's wife was doing!

She dreamed during all their drive to the Cliff House.

She listened absently to the doctor's description of San Francisco's advantages and delights; her mind was on a possible future there with Jim. If only he could feel as she did. If only he could realize that his mother was monopolizing his life, unwisely.

To her, luncheon was interesting only because she and Jim might lunch at the Cliff House also some day, and the doctor mattered only because of his connection with the hospital where Jim lay ill. She was glad when at last they began their journey back to the center of town, and during the doctor's call on a patient she sat in the car restlessly, wondering how soon Jim would be well enough to talk with her.

She saw him that afternoon, but only for a short time.

"There'll be some mail for me at the St. Thomas," he told her. "Would you mind calling for it and reading it? There might be something important."

"Oh, surely I'll do that," She glanced about the room helplessly; the roses that she had brought him

"Just your being here is enough," he answered weakly. "You'll stay till I'm well?"

"Why, of course! I'm with you forever." "Cynthia, do you mean that?" he asked. "I had a note from my sister saying that you and Noel Gardner had gone away—and then there was your letter saying that—"

"Oh Jim, I don't know what Louella wrote you, or what you think of me, but I didn't mean any of it, truly," she exclaimed. "I love you—I know that now. I was terribly mistaken before."

The nurse appeared at that moment, telling her that she must go. She went back to her hotel happily, confident that everything was going to be all right at last. Even if she and Jim had to go back and live under his mother's wing, they would be happy.

Noel Gardner was waiting for her at the hotel.

"You'll dine with me, won't you?" he urged. "I'm so darned lonely. I came chasing clear out here after you, and then you turn me down."

She dreamed during their drive to the Cliff House.

Do come."

After all, why not, Cynthia asked herself. She hesitated but a moment more, then nodded her head.

"All right, I'll go. But give me time to dress. Come back in an hour, Noel, and I'll be ready."

"Come back," he echoed, with a cheerful grin. "I won't need to. I'm staying here."

Cynthia did not like that. Her brow puckered in a faint little frown as she made her way to the elevator. Surely it was not considerate of Noel to stay at her hotel, despite the fact that in San Francisco there was nobody who knew them to gossip about them.

"I suppose I ought to leave word at the desk where I can be reached, in case they should want me at the hospital," she told Noel when she joined him again and they turned toward the door. "Jim was doing wonderfully this afternoon, but there might be a change."

"All right—I'll do it for you," he answered, and sauntered back to the desk to speak to the clerk.

Cynthia had a feeling that she should have done it herself, but dismissed it as absurd. She was getting flustered, she told herself, after the strain of the trip across the country. Oh well, soon Jim would be able to be up again, and he and she would go away to some quiet place and have another honeymoon.

Tomorrow—Journey's End.
